'Ye old con game' spotted; clerks foil swindle

A 28-year-old woman, believed to be from the Beverly Hills area, was arraigned Tuesday in Pomona Municipal Court on a charge of attempting to bilk a Pomona woman out of $2,000 in the venerable pigeon drop con game.

The suspect was arrested Thursday at a Pomona bank after bank employes tipped police about their suspicions of a con operation. She has also been identified as a possible suspect in a similar con incident Monday in Ontario in which an Ontario woman was bilked out of $500 cash.

Police said the suspect at first refused to identify herself, but later gave her name as Sandra Hughes and later still as Vicki Lynn Conrad. Detectives from the Los Angeles Police Department Bunko Squad fingerprinted the suspect in Pomona Friday and will attempt to make a positive identification.

After arraignment she was taken to the Los Angeles County Jail, where she is being held on $20,000 bail.

Pomona police credit employes at Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association, at 550 N. Indian Hill Blvd., with preventing the swindle Thursday when a 60-year-old Pomona woman attempted to withdraw $2,000 cash.

Det. Archie Johnson said a teller in the bank knew the woman and knew she had no young, female relative and stalled by giving the intended victim a check rather than the money — meanwhile tipping police that a possible con game was in progress.

Johnson said he and another officer went to the bank and confronted the victim and suspect. They were taken to the Pomona Police Department and interviewed.

At first, said Johnson, the Pomona woman did not believe she was being swindled, but later began to see what was happening and cooperated fully.

The pigeon drop, one of the oldest and somehow most successful confidence games in existence, has many variations but generally operates like this:

The swindlers spot a potential victim, usually an elderly woman who appears to have money. They flash a large wad of bills, many of which are often bogus, and offer to share their good fortune with victim if she will only put up "good faith money" herself.

The victim, anxious to share in the cash, withdraws a large amount of money from her savings account. The victim and swindlers then sometimes turn all the money over to a third person, often another of the swindlers posing as a lawyer. At some point the victim is left waiting alone and eventually realizes what has happened. Some call police. Others suffer in silence, too embarrassed to tell anyone.

The classic method worked Monday in Ontario when Mrs. Lillie McGrew, 87, was taken for $500 cash and a $4,500 cashier's check by two women, one of whom has been tentatively identified as the suspect arrested by Pomona police.

Fortunately for Mrs. McGrew, payment on the cashier's check was stopped.

Police are looking for other suspects in both cases.

BRR-R, IT'S AN ICE DAY

When the coldest weather of the year numbed Raleigh, N.C., residents Friday with record low temperatures, Gail Stephens stopped by the frozen fountain at Peace College to pick off a few of the beautiful icicles. Freezing cold weather was the order of the day Friday in much of the nation, especially in the Atlantic Coast and Great Lakes regions.

Ford vetoes labor, social service help

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford vetoed a $45 billion appropriation for labor and social services programs Friday and House leaders, seeking votes to override, postponed action until Jan. 27.

Ford said the appropriation, for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Wdlfare, would exceed his budget by nearly $1 billion; "add significantly to the already burdensome federal deficits," and increase the government payroll by 8,000 persons.

Deputy White House Press Secretary William I. Greener said the President is confident the veto will be sustained.

Congressional sources said the decision was made to delay in order to give backers of the measure, which would pay for a number of programs strongly supported by Democrats, time to try to persuade wavering members to vote to override. A two-thirds vote is required.

Ford said in his veto message he is not impressed by the argument that the total in the measure is in line with the budget guidelines Congress adopted under its new spending control procedures.

Humphrey ahead of Ford, Reagan in Harris polls

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., would defeat either President Ford or former California Gov. Ronald Reagan for the presidency if the election were held now, the Harris poll reported Friday.

Humphrey led Reagan, the only announced challenger to Ford for the Republican presidential nomination, by a 50-43 per cent margin.

Humphrey did even better as a 52-41 per cent choice over Ford in a survey of 1,214 likely voters conducted three weeks ago. In each case, 7 per cent of those queried were not sure how they would vote.

"These results ... suggest that, despite all the furor over whether or not President Ford can defeat Reagan for the Republican nomination, it is entirely possible that neither man can be elected on the GOP ticket in 1976," the survey organization concluded.

"The weak showing of Mr. Ford is another sign that he has slipped precipitously in his standing with the American people. Last April he had a 47-46 per cent lead over Humphrey. By September, this had grown to a substantial 48-42 per cent lead.

"Clearly, his losses among the entire electorate have been monumental. In two months he has turned a six-point lead into an 11-point deficit, a swing of 17 points.

A boon for workers, business, the poor

Congress approves bill to block tax increases

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress approved a compromise bill Friday that will block a Jan. 1 tax increase and sent the measure to President Ford, who signaled his approval.

The House by 372 to 10, and the Senate by voice vote, broke an impasse that had threatened to end the temporary antirecession tax cuts enacted earlier this year.

The final move that allowed both Congress and the President to come out claiming victory was approval of nonbinding language that put Congress on record in favor of reduced federal spending.

As a result, American workers and business will get a sixmonth extension of the tax cuts that are due to expire on Dec. 31. If Ford and Congress had not resolved their difference, a typical worker would have faced a tax increase of up to $6 a week.

An average family of four earning $15,000 a year would have paid $180 more per year on an annual basis without the extension. But it is the poor who would have been hardest hit. A family of four earning $6,000 yearly would have paid $410 more in taxes.

Asked if Ford will sign the compromise, Senate Republican Whip Robert Griffin, following a telephone conversation with the President, replied: "I'm as certain of that as anything."

The White House had expressed concern that the House version of the spending language was not as strong as the Senate plan.

As a result, several senators agreed to place in the Congressional Record statements saying flatly that the intent of the two plans was precisely the same.

The problem concerned what language Congress would use to express its agreement with Ford's determination that raising federal expenditures in 1977 should be held down.

The wording had to be innocuous enough to satisfy liberal Democrats, who wanted to protect the congressional budget process, but still sound enough like a spending-cut commitment to win Ford's approval.

Both houses agreed that if economic conditions allow, Congress will cut the budget for 1977, assuming the six-month tax cut is renewed next July for the remainder of 1976.

The final measure promises reduced spending "equal to any additional reduction in taxes."

The Senate had to approve the bill twice because of the differences over language with the House.

Valley bank robbed by 2 gunmen

Two gunmen staged a mid-day bank robbery in Diamond Bar Friday, taking an undetermined amount from cash from the bank vault and teller cages before fleeing 'with a bank employe as hostage.

The two men, one armed with a sawed-off shotgun and the other wielding a revolver, entered the Bank of America at 2875 Diamond Bar Blvd. at approximately 1 p.m., said Sheriff's deputies.

The suspect carrying the shotgun stationed himself by the bank entrance while the other forced two female bank employes to get money from the bank's vault and teller cages.

After taking the money, the suspects forced a male employe of the bank into the parking lot and ordered him to drive them from the scene in the employe's car.

Deputies said the men left the hostage tied and blindfolded about two miles away at Chestnut Creek Road and Evergreen Drive, and fled in a brown Toyota pickup truck.

One gunman was described as Caucasion, about 25, 5 feet 7, 160 pounds, with brown hair and wearing light colored pants.

The other was described as Mexican-American, about 20, 5 feet 7, 160 pounds, wearing a blue jacket.

Key witness in U.S. case shot, beaten

MT. CLEMENS, Mich. (AP) — John Whalen, a key government witness against former Michigan Gov. John Swainson in a perjury case, was kidnaped, tortured and shot by two men Friday, police said.

A passing motorist spotted Whalen, 30, at the side of a road a few miles north of Detroit and drove him to a police station in Utica, Mich., police said.

Police said Whalen told them his two abductors said moments before he was thrown from a car: "This is your going-away present."

Officials said Whalen had been wounded in the right leg by a gunshot. He was in fair condition at St. Joseph's Hospital in Mt. Clemens.

An FBI report said Whalen had cigarette burns on his face and body, indicating he had been tortured.

"Whalen was indeed kidnaped," said Robert Hyatt, a Wayne County Organized Crime Task force inspector.

Utica Police Commissioner Reuben Ricard said Whalen walked into the police station aided by a young woman who had driven him there in the car.

No 2nd gun in RFK case

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A lengthy search of the Ambassador Hotel pantry has failed to produce any evidence of a second gun in the 1968 assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, Dist. Atty. John Van de Kamp said Friday.

"No spent bullets or fragments thereof were found in the search," Van de Kamp told a news conference. "The evidence we have now does not establish there was a second gun."

Living costs going higher

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The cost of living hit another record high in Southern California, reports the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Prices in the Los Angeles-Long Beach area, up 9.3 per cent over the past 12 months, posted a .6 per cent boost in November over the cost of goods and services the preceding month, the figures released Friday show.

Up a full 1 per cent were restaurant costs, while the cost of transportation remained the same.

Housing and heating costs also surged substantially.

Friday's figures mean you pay $16.25 for goods and services that cost only $10 eight years ago.

Bill to help R.R. passes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress on Friday approved a $6.5 billion bill designed to pump new life into the nation's ailing rail system, but Rep. John Rhodes, R-Ariz., said President Ford will veto it.

The House approved the bill 205 to 150 after the Senate adopted it by 51 to 29.

Rhodes, the House Republican leader, unsuccessfully urged the House to send the legislation back to a conference committee in hopes of getting a bill which Ford would sign.

Roommate of Hearst released from jail

PLEASANTON, Calif. (AP) — Wendy Yoshimura, Patricia Hearst's former roommate, was released Friday from jail, saying she would "honor the trust placed in her by a judge and the Japanese-American community."

Miss Yoshimura, apparently nervous but smiling, met reporters outside the gates of Santa Rita Jail here to make a brief statement. By the time she finished she was shaking visibly with emotion.

"I remain high in spirit and strong in my convictions," she declared. "I extend my special solidarity to all my friends above ground and in the prisons and the Third World."

Miss Yoshimura, 32, neatly clad in a beige tweed skirt and jacket with a bright green sweater beneath, added that she sent "my special love to my friend in Soledad."

The comment referred to William Brandt, her onetime boyfriend who is serving a one-to-20-year sentence in the same case for which she faces trial.

The slender artist, escorted from the jail by a group of Japanese-American supporters, was released just three months to the day after she was arrested with Miss Hearst in a house they shared in San Francisco. She hesitated when asked whether she plans to visit Miss Hearst in jail, and her attorney, James Larson, said, "no decision has been made yet."

Miss Yoshimura declared her gratitude for the decision of Alameda County Superior Court Judge Lionel Wilson, who lowered her bail fom $100,000 to $25,000. This was posted in cash gathered from donations, some from supporters who pledged their life savings.

"I honor his (Wilson's) trust in me and the Japanese-American community and intend to act in accordance," she said.

Probe into 2 fire deaths continues

Pomona fire investigators Friday continued their probe of a fire that claimed the life of a 26-year-old Pomona woman Thursday night, and continued the search for the next-of-kin of man who died in another unrelated fire.

Jan Frances Hoehn, 26, of 1325 N. Caswell Ave., died in her car in the garage of her home at approximately 8:30 p.m. Thursday. Officials are trying to determine whether the fire started in the car or the garage and its cause.

The man, who has not been identified pending notification of next of kin, died Thursday night at Pomona Valley Community Hospital after being burned in a motel room fire, apparently caused by smoking in bed.

Autopsies have been scheduled to determine exact cause of death in both cases.

Funds to Angola faction cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate voted 54 to 22 Friday to cut off funds for covert U.S. military aid for two-anti-soviet factions in Angola.

The decision was a setback to the Ford administration which had warned through Secretary of State Henry Kissinger that the move would have "disastrous" consequences for U.S. foreign policy.

Democratic leader Mike Mansfield told the Senate he does not believe the fate of Angola is essential to the security of the United States. He said U.S. secret involvement there strongly parallels the commitments that led the United States in the war in Vietnam.

Some senators tried to postpone all action until next year on promises from Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., of the Senate Appropriations Committee, that he would allow no funds to be reprogrammed for use in Angola without the approval of his committee and the full Senate.

The successful motion, by Sen. John V. Tunney, D-Calif., would prevent the Central Intelligence Agency from using any of the funds in a pending $112.3 billion Defense Department appropriation bill for covert military operations in Angola.

The Senate refused, 58, to 21, to table the motion in an earlier vote.

Meanwhile, Kissinger said the Soviet Union has been giving substantial financial support to the Marxist faction in Angola for more than a year.

Kissinger acknowledged that there may be some "slight fluctuations" in the administration's account of U.S. involvement in the Angolan civil war.

Small-business career center starts at Cal Poly

The nation's first Small Business Career Opportunity Center was inaugurated Thursday at Cal Poly Pomona with an all-day seminar which attracted 140 government, business and educational leaders from 15 states.

The seminar inaugurating the pilot program at the university was co-sponsored by the Cal Poly of Business Administration and the U.S. Small Business Administration.

Called the "Pomona Plan," the new program, which began its operation with the fall quarter is directed toward small and medium-sized businesses. It is designed to bring the resources of the academic world to businesses and the skills of the business world to university students.

"The primary goal is to stimulate the flow of vital ideas and now capabilities into small business firms, enhancing and protecting the viability of the nation's economic base," said Reed M. Powell, dean of the university's School of Business Administration and originator of the Pomona Plan, in his opening remarks.

"Additionally, we are offering opportunities to the students to become better acquainted with small businesses.

"The interrelated experiences of bringing students and small businessmen together through a program emphasizing progressive, mutual involvement will lead to more successful current businesses and more careers for graduates."

The center at Cal Poly is an outgrowth of SBA's Small Business Institute program which has been in operation on a number of U.S. campuses for the past few years. This program assists troubled small businesses by providing management assistance and counseling by qualified students and faculties of business administration schools and related courses of study.

Another SBA program being incorporated in the new center concept at Cal Poly is the use of the Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE) and Active Corps of Executives (ACE). These businessmen volunteer their expertise to assist businesses in need of management support and guide students in practical business experiences.

The Small Business Career Opportunity Center is established on the second floor of the business building at the university. Here successful industrial leaders from companies, large and small, work with students in the new learning experience.

Cal Poly was designated by the U.S. Small Business Administration for this pilot program. It is anticipated that five other universities will join the program next year, according to Powell.

"It is hoped that some 300 to 400 universities will be involving thousands of students and businessmen in similar shared learning experiences in subsequent years," added the professor.

Cal Poly President Robert C. Kramer addressed the noon luncheon meeting. He described the center's program as three interlocking rings—the business community, the SBA and other governmental agencies and the university.

"The philosophy of Cal Poly is to learn by doing," said Kramer. "This applies not only to our students, but to our faculty."

He added that the university had the faculty, the students and the research facilities to assist small businesses in need.

"Businesses, on the other hand, also had funds, equipment and trained manpower to sometimes offer amazing help to us."

During the luncheon, Dr. Kramer accepted an American flag which had been flown over the U.S. Capitol for the new center.

Panelists including Robert P. Hanrahan, deputy assistant secretary of education, Department of Health, Education and Welfare; Louis Laun, acting administrator of the U.S. Small Business Administration; and Sen. David A. Roberti, chairman of the Senate Majority Caucus in the state legislature.

MSAC faces deficit as enrollment increases

A 14 per cent projected increase over last year in average daily attendance is throwing Mt. San Antonio College into deficit spending, according to President Eldon E. Pearce.

He said the college is providing education to more than 1,100 students this year without any state aid.

Pearce told the Board of Trustees Thursday that since the state will not reimburse the district for more than a five per cent increase in ADA the district will be forced to pick up the tab, estimated at $200,000 for the extra classes and teachers, and an additional $300,000 in non-recurring expenses.

Had the state paid for the additional ADA, the district would have realized $1,268,000 more in educational aid, Pearce estimated.

The deficit will come out of the district's $1.5 million undistributed reserves this year, but Pearce indicated a serious problem for next year if the five per cent cap is extended.

He suggested five possibilities of handling the problem: 1. Limit enrollment throughout the college. 2. Increase the local tax rate. 3. Continue to dip into reserves. 4. Charge fees to students. 5. A combination of two or more of those alternatives.

"We must make a decision within the next two months as to which way we'll go," he told the board. "There is no way we can stem the tide."

He said the college already is holding the line on programs offered to adults on a noncredit basis, but no effort has been made to cut back the credit programs either during the day or at night.

Pearce said that if the board decides to cut back the curriculum, he would prefer to start with the noncredit adult education program, then cut the evening credited schedule and finally the day offerings.

"We really don't want to deprive anyone from furthering his education at Mt. San Antonio College," he added. "But the state may leave us no choice . . ."

He said many other community colleges throughout the Southland are in a similar position. Pearce told the board that several bills are in preparation to ease the plight of the colleges but "right now the chances were bleak."

Choir set to perform

The Cathedral Choir of Trinity United Methodist Church, Pomona, will present the Christmas portion of Handel's "Messiah" at the church at 3 p.m. Sunday. Admission is free.

The choir, conducted by Tom Antal, will be accompanied by a harpsichord and string ensemble.

W. Valley Transit increases service

The West Valley Transit Service Authority has increased service on its Ontario-Upland and Montclair routes to accommodate the holiday crowds.

Service on the Ontario-Upland route will be increased between 9:40 a.m. and 3:40 p.m. to provide one-half hour pick-up intervals. Two mini-buses will be temporarily added to the route so that it will be only a 30-minute wait between buses at any pick-up point on the route.

The addition of the two mini-buses will increase service and relieve the need for people to stand on the bus or be left at the bus stop.

A larger, 36-passenger bus has replaced the 16-passenger mini-bus on the Montclair route. The larger bus should rectify the overcrowded conditions that existed on the small bus.

The service, fares and schedule will remain the same.

Persons wishing additional information should call the WVTSA dispatch office, 988-1215.

Pay hike approved

An 8.4 per cent salary boost for Chino's administrative staff has been approved by the City Council.

The wage increase, effective immediately, will go to 33 management-level employes including the city manager, department heads, police and fire department administrators and executive secretaries.

Those employes did not receive increases when all non-management workers got increases last summer. City workers received a five per cent boost effective in June, and police employes received an seven per cent increase effective in October.

Dec. 28 jazz

The Society for the Preservation of Dixieland Jazz will hold its regular 5-hour jam session at the Arcadia Elks Lodge, 27 W. Huntington Blvd., Dec. 28, not this Sunday as reported in Wednesday's Progress Bulletin.

The jazz session starts at 2 p.m. The public is invited.

Medina to run for mayor post

Nick S. Medina, a Chino planning commissioner, Friday became the third candidate to enter the race for mayor.

Medina, 46, took out nomination papers to oppose incumbent Mayor Bob McLeod and challenger Robert Bertschinger, in the March 2 election.

A refrigeration contractor, Medina says, "I am a concerned citizen, taxpayer and long-time resident of Chino. I firmly believe it is time that city government provide leadership and become more responsive to the needs of the people."

The council should address itself not only to the physical growth of the city but also the "human and social needs of our citizens and community," he declared.

Medina adds, "At the same time I realize our city government has limited resources to expand, therefore the city must provide leadership to help people help themsleves and improve our community."

The candidate has been active with the Chino Community Action Council (CAC), Human Relations Council, Council of Social Services, Boy Scout Troop 205, the advisory board for Chino General Hospital, and United Steel Workers of America (Local 2058).

Medina also was on the Chino School District superintendent advisory committee, and West End Council of Human Services. He ran unsuccessfully for a City Council seat in 1974.

He is married and has five children.

Disabled at Mass

Developmentally - disabled children in the area will perform at a pre-Christmas Mass today at 11 a.m. at St. Margaret Catholic Church in Chino.

The Mass will be hosted by Pomona Knights of Columbus Chapter 877.

The Rev. Michael Gilsene of Pacific State Hospital will celebrate the Mass. It will be bilingual so everyone can participate.

Children from a religion class at St. Margaret's will portray the birth of Jesus from the gospel in a 40-minute presentation. Refreshments will follow.

S.B. Count' gets deadline to pay for or ose RTD service

By MAE TATE
PB Staff Writer

Southern California Rapid Transit District has given San Bernardino County a reprieve on service termination until Feb. 1.

Wes McDaniel, executive director of San Bernardino Associated Governments, told West Valley Transit Service Authority members of the reprieve at the board's Thursday meeting.

"The Feb. 1 date is probably the end of the line," McDaniel said. "We'll have to make decisions before then."

RTD officials notified cities and the Board of Supervisors in October that all service would be terminated at any time if the county did not pay for it.

The reprieve came as a result of the efforts of SANBAG, the transit planning agency for San Bernardino County, and the RTD technical staff. Using recommendations from the WVTSA, McDaniel discussed the continuation of service within the county, and the RTD staff estimated the cost of the service.

Reading a letter from Jack Gilstrap, RTD geal manager, McDaniel said the oximate cost to the county wd be $390,300. Gilstrap's letteointed out that "this amount (vd) be effective retroactive to Jl1, 1975 to cover the entire fiscal ır."

The estimate v based on hourly service for 13 ho Monday through Saturday and 10urs on Sundays and holidays. It uld include lines to the Montcla Plaza via Holt Boulevard and tral Avenue, to Ontario Internaal Airport via Holt, to Mulber Street and the Riverside Countne, from Riverside to the San rnardino station and to the Montc Plaza via Arrow Highway and Ceal.

The present li from Claremont to San Antonio Cmunity Hospital in Upland woulemain, said McDaniel, but it wo bend down to the Montclair Plaza.

The inter-counline to Riverside would be switchfrom Holt Boulevard with the WSA long haul service." He sugged that because this switch elimies the Hot line, it might be feasiblo consider negotiations with RTD for a local Holt line.

Noting that it was "second-hand information," the SANBAG director said that RTD "is taking a hard line on airport service. They feel that someone must pay, either the Los Angeles Department of Airports or San Bernardino County."

This means that Ontario International Airport service would also cease if the county refused to contract for regional service from RTD.

"There is some RTD service that we should keep and pay for," McDaniel stated. "We should utilize it in a way best suited for the area."

Harold Hayes, WVTSA board chairman, noted the importance of making a decision as soon as possible. At his urging, the board referred the matter to the technical committee. A board decision will be made at the Jan. 15 meeting.

The RTD question is also being taken to other transit representatives in the county.

In other action, the board approved, in concept, the organizational structure and functions of the new Omnitrans organization suggested by a task force of city and county officials.

Omnitrans is the recommended agency to coordinate transit service and operational responsibilities in the county.

Ron Bergman, deputy executive director of SANBAG, recapped the task force recommendations that the county and San Bernardino Transit Systems (SBTS) merge and become the East Valley Transit Service Authority, Omnitrans serve as the single operator and coordinator, and each transit service authority be allowed to become stockholders in Omnitrans.

The question of the weighted vote, with representatives votes determined by capital assets in the agency, will be clarified at a later date. The weighted vote may be imposed only on occasion, said Bergmen, rather than on a routine basis.

Joint power agreements being drafted by Bergman and Alan Marks, county counsel assigned to SANBAG, will be studied by task force representatives and considered at a Jan. 7 meeting.

Pomona to have special Freedom Train bus runs

Special bus service between downtown Pomona and the site of the American Freedom Train at the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds will begin Tuesday, Southern California Rapid Transit District officials announced today.

The bus will operate at 40-minute intervals between Garey Avenue and Third Street downtown to the fairgrounds by way of Third Street and White Avenue. Fare will be 25 cents.

The service will operate each day the Freedom Train is open to the public from 7:40 a.m. to 10 p.m. A one-way trip on the bus will take approximately 15 minutes.

The Freedom Train, which will arrive at the fairgrounds Monday at about 4 p.m., will open to the public Tuesday at 8 a.m. Hours of operation through Dec. 30 will be 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., except on Christmas Eve when it will close at 6 p.m. It will be closed on Christmas Day.

Admission to the Freedom Train is $2 for adults, and $1 for children 3 to 12 and for senior citizens. Tickets may be purchased at the Freedom Train box office at the fairground's administration building off McKinley Avenue.

The 26-car train will display hundreds of historical documents and artifacts along with American artworks and items representative of historical and contemporary American culture.

Council unresponsive to alarm over Upland firemen pension plan

By VONNIE ROBERTSON
PB Staff Writer

Do the Upland firefighters have the right to seek the same retirmenet benefits granted previously to the city's police officers by the voters?

Yes, said members of the Upland Firefighters Association who are willing to pay the necessary costs to place the issue on the March 2 municipal ballot.

No, the City Council said Monday in voting against allowing the tax measure issue on the ballot.

The voting was tied 2-2 with one member absent. A tie vote automatically defeated the motion.

Mayor Abner B. Haldeman voted for the measure but said "This doesn't mean I'm for a tax raise." Councilman John Mccarthy, a former police officer, also supported the firefighters' request.

Council members Hal Bailin and Ina Petokas opposed the ballot measure and Councilman George Gibson was absent.

In voting against the measure, Bailin said "If the firefighters convince the voters they should have increased retirement benefits, then all other city employes would want to have them and that would greatly increase the cost of city government."

But Tom Moseley, president of the Upland Firefighters Association, said:

"This retirement program applies only to safety (fire and police) personnel." Authorized by the state legislature, the program upgrades existing retirement programs and is offered to California Highway Patrol and local safety members of contracting agencies.

In March 1974, Upland voters authorized the same retirement program for the police officers. The tax was 6.5 per $100 assessed valuation during the first year and 6.2 in this fiscal year.

Although the measure can be presented again, and firefighters intend to do so, Monday was the final opportunity to put the measure on the March 2 ballot.

Moseley said the firefighters had attempted to discuss the proposal with city officials early this year but their pleas met with deaf ears.

"We finally got approval in July to make a study at our own cost and just obtained the result on Dec. 5," added Mosely.

"Nationally statistics show that firemen lead in the death toll statistics due to accidents, heart attacks and lung disorders," added the association president.

Moseley said that while Upland's population has expanded to 45,000 the fire department has only 27 members and two fire stations.

Moseley and Gary Edwards, a member of the firefighters association, said the group wants to "go through channels" to continue seeking the improved retirement program which has been approved by many communities in the state and is already offered to the Upland police officers.

"We would never consider striking, but we do want the council and other officials to at least discuss the problem with us," the men said.

Alternatives open to the firefighters association include presenting petitions to residents to get the measure on the ballot and returning to plead their case before the City Council to have it placed on the June 8 statewide primary election ballot.

Association members have not yet decided which action to take.

Riverside chooses ex-L.V. city exec

Former La Verne City Manager William F. Cornett Jr. has been named city manager of Riverside, winning the post over five other finalists including former Claremont City Manager Keith Mulrooney.

The Riverside City Council announced Tuesday that it had chosen Cornett, 56, now Fullerton city administrator, to replace Dan Stone, who resigned in September under pressure from the Council.

Cornett, La Verne city manager from 1956 to 1959, will begin work Jan. 21 at a salary of $42,500.

Cornett has been Fullerton's city administrator since 1966.

The six finalists were interviewed Saturday by the City Council. Mulrooney had flown in from Alexandria, Va. where he has turned in his resignation as city manager, effective Jan. 2.

Mulrooney quit as Claremont city manager in November 1974 to take the Alexandria post.

He had been Claremont city manager for eight years.

Mulrooney on quitting at Alexandra declined to elaborate on his differences with the council, but said, "I have no regrets in leaving here. I'm glad I came."

Church parley ends in spirit of unity

By G. MERRILL LEMOX

RIO DE JANEIRO — On the way home from the Fifth Assembly of the World Council of Churches at Nairobi, one has opportunity to reflect upon that important church event. The delegates went about their tasks with zeal. There may be some difference of opinion about the results of their deliberations but most observers noted their efforts to strive for an understanding of the mandates of the Christian faith for our day.

William P. Thompson, newly elected president of the National Council of Churches of Christ and chief administrative officer of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States, told this reporter that the Assembly "was characterized by the hard work of the delegates."

"They showed unusual diligence," the lawyer-churchman asserted, "in the meetings of the work groups, hearings sections and committees. Unlike the Fourth Assembly in Uppsala in 1968, there was little confrontation.

"Many delegates from the United States chafed somewhat under the unusual procedural rules which prevail in the WCC. Nevertheless, "I anticipate that the documents finally approved by the assembly will receive wide study and detailed analysis by many persons in the U.S.A. Finally, judgment as to the merit or lack of merit of the product, will necessarily await that evaluation."

Thompson's comment upon the hard work of the delegates was certainly borne out by the daily routine. Many arose for an early morning worship service and remained all day for either plenary sessions or for small group meetings with only a brief respite for lunch. In addition, they had documents to study in the evening and some had to labor into the "wee small hours" in the preparation of important papers for the council to consider.

After some frustration over bordensome procedures, the delegates at the end developed a deep sense of unity. In a spectacular closing service, a Greek Orthodox choir sang a portion of its Liturgy, a black choral group presented numbers in its traditional style, a German musical ensemble, accompanied by flute, guitar and drums contributed contemporary numbers.

An American Indian rendered the Lord's Prayer reverently and gracefully in sign language, passages of Scripture were read in eight different languages and all present at the service marched out of the meeting room singing, to a catchy new tune, "Break down the walls that separate us and unite us in a single body."

The worshippers all gathered on the beautiful Kenyatta Centre plaza, concluding the historic Fifth Assembly with a Benediction and singing "O Come All Ye Faithful" as an appropriate Advent carol.

On important current issues, the WCC called, more intensely than ever before, for an end to oppression of every kind and for the upholding of human rights. Moreover, the council devoted greater attention to liberation for women than it had done at any previous conclave.

It spoke up vigorously for mutual disarmament and world peace. It pled for increased attention to the need for saving the world from man-made destructive forces and practices.

It called for closer relations with Roman Catholics. It also recommended an expansion of dialogue with other religious groups without in any way compromising the distinctive Christian witness. All the findings now go to the member churches for study and action.

Elmer G. Homrighausen, retired professor at Princeton Theological Seminary, said:

"This Fifth Assembly was a major stage in the development of the Ecumenical Movement in modern times because the World Council now includes churches from all continents and most denominations which qualify for membership. The delegates discussed, face to face, crucial, indeed controversial, issues in theology and society in the spirit of unity in Jesus Christ.

"Those in attendance were concerned about how all they experienced can be brought to bear upon local congregations and can become alive at the local level. The big squeeze is how the imperious needs of our time can be met with funds that are insufficient. Support must be found."

Q. "WHAT IS A WEAVERBIRD?"

LINDA SAUTNER
RAHWAY, NJ

A. THE WEAVERBIRD IS A SMALL, SPARROW-LIKE BIRD THAT WEAVES HOLLOW, FLASK-SHAPED NESTS OF DRIED GRASS.

The weaverbird is a small, sparrowlike bird that weaves nests out of grasses.

To weave its nest, a typical weaverbird starts by twisting and weaving grass and other stringy stuff into a strong rope, which hangs from the tip of a branch.

To this it weaves a hollow, flask-shaped chamber, with the entrance either at the side or through a long, woven tube that hangs from the bottom like a drainpipe from a house.

The weaverbird may finish up by weighting the nest with lumps of clay to prevent it from swaying.

The most remarkable weaverbirds are the social weavers of Africa, which work together to build a bird apartment house.

They start by building one large, thatched-grass roof that hands in a sturdy tree. Then each family weaves its nest under the roof.

The community nest may contain more than 100 separate "rooms," and is often as big as a native hut.

A pocket radio, camera, World Almanac globe or other fine prize will be awarded to the first youngster sending in a question used here. Send your question and your age to Johnny Wonder, (c/o this newspaper), Box 1335 (DA), Santa Cruz, CA 95061.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Today should get better for you as time rolls on. Relax. Enjoy yourself. Play everything by ear. Keep your plans loose.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) A few minor domestic frustrations are likely to occur early in the day, but you can cope easily. This evening will be fun.

GEMINI (may 21-June 20) Some gome news is coming your way. You'll probably receive it by late afternoon. If a reply is required, respond promptly.

CANCER (june 21-July 22) Your prospects are very encouraging today. Follow through on any situations which develop that could increase your holdings.

LEO (July 23-Aug.s 22) Fortunately, Lady Luck will backstop something you'll impulsively do today, but remember: She isn't always this reliable.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept 22) If you're negotiating an important matter today, let the other fellow do most of the talking. He's willing to give better terms than you think.

LIBRA (Sept. 23.Oct. 23) Though you may not feel like it early in the day, make plans to share some time with close friends. It will be very pleasant..

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) This is a good day for you to get together with persons who can help your work or career. Ask favors if necessary.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Don't be hesitatnt about handling large issues today. In fact, you're likely to be far more successful with them than you'll be with little ones.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) This will be a profitable day for you in a very unusual manner. One with your interests at heart is willing to share something.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You have a marvelous way about you today. It puts others completely at ease, because you're as concerned about them as yourself.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) This can be a fortunate day for you if you work in accordincance with your highest ideals. You'll not seek rewards, but they'll be there.

Your Birthday, Dec. 21

You will reap the harvest this coming year for things you've sown the seeds for in the past. The returns may be larger than you expected.

Israel returns remains of 93 Egyptian troops

Thursday the bodies of 93 Egyptian soldiers killed in the last two Middle East wars, the military command announced.

A spokesman said all the remains were found recently in different areas of the Sinai desert. Sixteen of the bodies were from the 1967 war, the spokesman said.

A communique said the remains were returned "in accordance with the Egyptians' request."

Moses named to affirmative action post

Acting Schools Supt. Sidney G. Moses is officer of the Affirmative Action Advisory Committee established in the Pomona school district.

Moses was appointed to this position by action of the school board on Tuesday.

The committee is to become effective Jan. 1.

Its organization is in accordance with state Board of Education policy adopted in April of 1974, and fulfills one of the recommendations made last spring by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

The committee will serve as an advisory body to the school board in matters related to active recruitment, employment and promotion of minority ethnic groups and women in an attempt to provide equal employment opportunity in the district.

This committee will be assigned to formulate an affirmative action policy and make recommendations to the school board for its implementation to achieve short and long-term goals, and time tables in which to accomplish them.

The committee will establish its own organizatioal structure and meeting schedule.

Community representatives serving on the committee are Mrs. Shirley Abrams, Donald Barnes, Gilbert Belmudez, Mrs. Cynthia Cook, Cecil Hoover, Mrs. Gertha Speiginer and Mrs. Martha Vejar.

District certificated elected Mrs. Ada S. Jeppesen, a language arts teacher at Pomona High School, to represent them on the committee. John Avila and Mel Banks, intergroup education coordinators, will represent district administrators.

Joel Enriquez, ASB president at Pomona High School, is the student representative.

Five employe groups will name representatives to the committee. These groups are the Associated Pomona Teachers, Pomona Administrators Association, Association of Women for Abilities and Rights in Education, California School Employes Association and Pomona Valley Public Employes Local 1080.

Names of the additional representatives will be presented to the school board Jan. 6.

MSAC rehires Pearce

Eldon E. Pearce, president of Mt. San Antonio College, has been given a new four-year contract by the college's board of trustees.

Pearce became president of the college in 1971, after the resignation of Mrs. Marie Mills. He served as vice president in charge of business services before then.

The contract calls for a salary of $46,900 during the current year.

Softball was invented by George W. Hancock.

Once considered too dry to support extensive agriculture, Nebraska in fact lies over great groundwater reserves. At least 40,000 shallow wells and many storage reservoirs irrigate more than 5,000,000 acres.

McCutcheon joins Rams' injury list

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fullback Lawrence McCutcheon, the last remaining member of the Los Angeles Rams original 1975 backfield, was hurt in practice Friday and won't start against Pittsburgh's Steelers tonight.

KABC (7), 6 p.m.

McCutcheon, the leading rusher for the Rams, suffered a pulled thigh muscle and it's doubtful if he even will play in the nationally televised battle.

The nationally televised game (channel 7) means little unless the Minnesota Vikings lose to Buffalo this morning.

If the Vikings lose to Buffalo, the Rams could earn the home field advantage for the second playoff game, Jan. 3 or 4, by defeating the Steelers tonight.

But if Minesota wins, there is practically no chance the Rams could earn the home field advantage for the second playoff game.

Coach Chuck Knox announced that rookie Rod Phillips will start in place of McCutcheon and also said understudy quarterback Ron Jaworski will be the signal caller.

McCutcheon's pulled muscle was the latest in a series of injuries and illnesses which have sidelined eight of the original Los Angeles starters.

The backfield of Jaworski, Rod Scribner or Cullen Bryant and Phillips is completely different with one exception. Bryant has alternated with Jim Bertelsen at halfback as the coaches send in their plays with one or the other. Bryant, who won a suit against the NFL to stay with the Rams, is the only familar face.

Knees, a shoulder, mononucleosis and now the thigh muscle have been more damaging to the Rams than opponents as Los Angeles posts an 11-2 record against the defending National League champions and their 12-1 mark.

"They are awesome, the hottest team in football right now," said Knox of the Steelers.

John Cappelletti, who had been the No. 2 fullback behind McCutcheon, went on the hospital list this week with mononucleosis and probably is out for the rest of the season.

Offensive tackle Charlie Cowan, who suffered a sprained ankle in the 22-5 victory over Green Bay last week, won't suit up for the regular season finale.

Even before the Green Bay game, cornerbacks Al Clark and Charlie Stukes, tight end Bob Klein and defensive tackle Larry Brooks had been knocked out for the season.

Scribner took over for Bertelsen at halfback last Sunday when the former Texas star suffered torn ligaments in his right knee. Jaworski replaced quarterback James Harris, who has a shoulder ailment.

Scribner will back up Jaworski at quarterback while Phillips, a rookie running back from Jackson State, has moved from reserve tight end to No. 2 fullback and now the starter.

Reserve linebacker Rick Kay becomes the No. 2 tight end behind Terry Nelson.

Still, Pittsburgh is favored by only three points and the hope engendered by Steelers Coach Chuck Noll's statement that he would use "a lot of people" went glimmering.

Noll said he will start all of his able bodied Steelers, and that's most of them. Defensive tackle Joe Greene remains questionable.

Noll is expected to use reserve quarterbacks Terry Hanratty and Joe Gilliam in the second half to perfect their timing in case they're needed to replace Terry Bradshaw in the playoffs.

Pittsburgh has won 11 straight games, the longest streak in the league. If they beat the Rams, they will become the sixth team in league history to win 13 games in a season. And the American Conference club has a streak of 10 straight against National Conference opposition.

Bradshaw leads the N L in passing with 162 completions of 276 throws for 2,027 yards and 18 touchdowns. He needs jut one touchdown pass to tie Bobby Layne's club record of 67 in a season.

Franco Harris needs just 22 yards rushing to beat the 1,141-yard club season record of John Henry Johnson set in 1962. Wide receiver Lynn Swann needs just one touchdown pass to tie the club record of 12 in a campaign.

Warren beats Garey

Pomona, California ■ Saturday, December 20, 1975

LAGUNA BEACH — Garey High ran into a hot-shooting, well-disciplined basketball team in the Warren High Bears here Friday night in the semifinals of the Laguna Beach Tournament, and the result was a 86-79 win for the Bears.

Warren guard Brian Lumsden had a hot hand all night long, scoring 33 points for the victors. Teammate Mark Mullane, the Bear center, added 21 in helping to hold off a late Viking rally.

Garey, 5-2 on the year, will face Canyon tonight at 6 in the battle for third place in the tourney.

Getting off to a slow start, the Vikings found themselves down 10-1 before they got their offense going. A late rally put Garey back into the thick of things at the end of the first period, at which point the Vikings trailed 20-15.

Behind the consistent second quarter scoring of forward Gary Carpenter and center James Lofton (each finished with 14 points), the Viking grabbed the lead at 29-28 but wound up two points behind (39-37) at the half. The teams played even in the third quarter and Warren took a 57-55 advantage into the final period.

Warren got a quick start in that quarter and moved out in front by eight points, 65-57, and later by ten points at 77-67. Garey guards Kent Jordan and Stanley Webster started to trigger a late rally, but the Bears were able to hold the Vikings off and kill the remaining time left on the clock.

Jordan paced the Vikings with 24 points and Webster had 20. Garey didn't receive one point from the bench, simply because Coach Mike Wells elected to go with the starting five almost all the way.

At noon today Walnut will take on California High in a game which will determine ninth place in the tourney.

Gail Goodrich of the Lakers catches pass in front of Chicago Bulls' John Laskowski in the first half of Friday's game won by the Bulls, 104-91. Lakers continue road trip to Cleveland Sunday afternoon.

Even Bulls top Lakers

CHICAGO (AP) — Six Chicago players, led by John Laskowski's 19 points, shook the Bulls out of a six-game losing streak Friday night with a 104-91 National Basketball Association victory over the Los Angeles Lakers.

The Bulls, who had not won at home since Nov. 1 and had dropped 17 of their last 19 contests, led by as much as 24 points late in the third quarter in handing the Lakers their 12th setback of the season and their 11th road loss.

The Bulls, who now have won only six games all year, marked the return of Jerry Sloan, star defensive guard who had missed 13 games with a leg injury.

After grabbing a 56-43 halftime lead, as Laskowski hit 10 second-quarter points, the Bulls put on a torrid scoring show early in the third quarter to grab a 73-53 advantage. During the spree, Mickey Johnson, who had 18 points, chipped in with 10 while Bob Love added six.

It was all Chicago in the fourth quarter as Jack Marin, who had 15 points, and Laskowski kept the Lakers at bay.

Lakers Lucius Allen, who had 28 points, led a brief surge midway in the quarter to cut the lead from 24 to 17 points before Laskowski hit a jumper and a layup.

From a defensive standpoint, the Bulls held high-scoring center Kareem Abdul Jabbar to 17 points while high-flying guard Gale Goodrich could collect only eight points. The Lakers, who are 14-1 on their home court, now have lost 11 out of 15 on the road and three in a row.

The Bulls, in hopes of breaking into the win column, started their 12th different lineup of the season and for the first time, got a 10-point performance from a center

Myer's late bomb nets North win

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — New Mexico's Steve Myer, a former Mt. San Antonio College grid star, threw a 51-yard touchdown pass to Bill Singler of Stanford with 31 seconds left Friday night to give the favored North All-Stars a 14-13 come-from-behind victory in a Blue-Gray football game mysteriously cut short by three minutes.

The first period ran only 12 minutes instead of the customary 15. Blue-Gray officials could offer no explanation, but the timekeeper on the field said the time was cut short at the request of an independent television network which broadcast the game.

There was no explanation from the network.

A stingy South defense had kept the Blues scoreless until the last period.

Dexter Pride of Minnesota put the North on the board with a touchdown from one yard out and then Myer uncorked the bomb to Singler.

The South's scores came on a one-yard touchdown plunge by quarterback Phil Rogers of Virginia Tech and two field goals by Bubba Hicks of Baylor.

Despite the Yankee victory, the South's No. 1 quarterback Scott Gardner of Virginia was voted Most Valuable Player because of his effective ball control for most of the game and his mixture of passing and running plays that kept the Northerners off guard.

Hicks, who equaled two Southwest Conference records by kicking four field goals in the final regular season game gainst Rice—one of them for 60 yards—also tied a Blue-Gray kicking record. He booted one for 40 yards, equaling the longest field goal in the All-Star series.

It was the third victory in a row for the Blue squad and brought the series record to 16 winning appearances for the North to 20 for the South.

The Blue squad, under Coach Jack Christensen of Stanford, stuck to the ground most of the game even though it had the nation's leading passer, Craig Penrose of San Diego State. The freezing weather made it difficult to hold onto the ball and maintain an effective aerial attack.

Porter scores 16 for USC

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern California scored 14 unanswered points at the beginning of the second half to break open a close game and the Trojans went on to defeat Howard University 101-74 Friday night.

Reserve forward Cleve Porter, a sophomore from Pomona's Ganesha High, had his biggest night in his Trojan career by scoring 16 points to lead the USC attack.

Steve Malovic grabbed 16 rebounds and blocked eight shots.

Vadnay Cotton and John Mullen led Howard with 14 points apiece.

After USC led only 43-38 at the half, Malovic and Greg White led a 31-4 blitz, as the Trojans held Howard without a field goal for ten minutes and 13 seconds.

The Trojans are now 6-1, and Howard is 2-4.

USC Coach Bob Boyd substituted freely throughout the game in an effort to rest his team for Saturday afternoon's game against Colorado.

Howard, of Washington, D.C., was at a distinct size disadvantage as the Bisons' tallest starter, Cotton, was but 6-6. But they did give the Trojans a battle for the first 20 minutes.

Howard forward Mullen converted a three-point play with 10:46 to play in the half to give Howard a 16-15 lead.

But Southern Cal reserves Porter and freshman Neil Arnold led a rally to spark the Trojans to a 31-22 lead.

With Malovic controlling the boards and White and Earl Evans triggering the fast break, USC wasted no time blowing Howard out in the second half, opening up a 74-42 margin.

The Trojans won despite the fact their leading scorer, Marv Safford, averaging 19.7 points per game, scored but two points in the 14 minutes he played.

All 12 USC players scored, with five Trojans finishing in double figures. The Trojans shot 52 per cent from the field, and the Bisons hit but 29 per cent of their floor shots.

Connors wins Davis match

MEXICO CITY (AP) - It was a "dogfight" for Jimmy Connors of the United States and a romp for Raul Ramirez of Mexico as the two won opening-day singles matches in a 1976 North American Zone Davis Cup tennis elimination.

Connors, who was expected to sweep his match with Mexico's Marcelo Lara, had to struggle to beat the scrappy Mexican 62, 6-1, 3-6, 4-6, 7-5.

Ramirez, playing against his frequent doubles partner in international competition, evened best-of-five match 1-1 by whipping Brian Gottfried 6-1, 6-4, 62.

Fog cancels Waves' tilt

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The basketball game between Chicago State and Pepperdine scheduled Friday night was cancelled when fog in Chicago closed the airport there.

Pepperdine announced the cancellation since Chicago State's team could not arrive in time.

Lots of "ifs" loom in NFL

By Associated Press

It's time for all the "ifs" to get turned into "whens."

If the Miami Dolphins beat Denver on today ... if the Baltimore Colts can make it nine in a row on Sunday against New England...if the Cincinnati Bengals defeat San Diego...

With one weekend of regular-season play left, the National Football League playoff contenders are all but set. But nobody's sure which team is going to play where, or against whom. That's what some of these final 13 games are all about.

For the rest of them, it's time to reach for that 1,000-yard rushing plateau, to try and break a league record or two, to make that last big effort that'll help the 1976 salary demands, to improve the team's place a bit in the standings...or just to get this season over with.

The Dolphins can still win the American Conference East title. They can also squeeze into the playoffs via the AFC wild-card route. But their chances of either are rated as rather slender. To do so, they must whip Denver—which is expected—and either Baltimore or Cincinnati must lose—which is not.

Thus, in effect, it's all up to Miami. If the Dolphins lose, Baltimore automatically wins the AFC East title and Cincinnati just as automatically gets the conference wild card.

"You'd really be sick if you lost on Saturday and then either New England or San Diego won," says Dolphins Coach Don Shula. "We've got to play it like everything depends on the game. That's what I've got to sell the squad on."

In today's other games, Minnesota is at Buffalo—with Fran Tarkenton still trying to surpass Johnny Unitas' record of 290 career touchdowns—and Super Bowl IX champion Pittsburgh is at Los Angeles in a game which many fans believe will be a preview of the matchup in Super Bowl X.

Along with the New England-Baltimore and San Diego-Cincinnati contests, Sunday's games are St. Louis at Detroit, Kansas City at Oakland, Dallas at the New York Jets, Cleveland at Houston, Philadelphia at Washington, Atlanta at Green Bay, the New York Giants at San Francisco and Chicago at New Orleans.

Pittsburgh, the league's winningest team at 12-1, has won 11 consecutive games in clinching the AFC Central crown. Los Angeles is working on a five-game streak and needs the victory to assure itself of an opening-round home game in the NFC playoffs.

Buffalo's O.J. Simpson already has the NFL rushing title in the bag with 1,760 yards. He needs 240 more—a highly improbable feat—to surpass 2,000 yards again. Along with Tarkenton, the Vikings have another record-chaser in running back Chuck Foreman. He's gunning for an NFC "Triple Crown," the scoring, receiving and rushing titles. He's first in the first two but has 985 yards, 22 shy of conference leader Jim Otis of St. Louis.

USF Dons explode over Oral Roberts

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 14th-ranked University of San Francisco Dons exploded for 55 second-half points, including 10 apiece by freshmen Winford Boynes and James Hardy, and trounced Oral Roberts 98-76 Friday night in the first round of the Cable Car Classic.

The Dons and the Providence Friars, both 6-1, will play in Saturday night's finals of the college basketball tournament.

Providence, led by Joe Hassett's 26 points, beat Santa Clara 73-66 in the other first-round game.

San Francisco trailed twice by 13 points in the first half before Boynes got hot from the outside. The Dons held a 43-41 halftime lead on Russ Coleman's long jump shot at the buzzer.

The Titans from Oral Roberts led 50-47 early in the second half, but USF then scored 10 straight points to take a 57-50 lead, and the Dons steadily increased their margin over the final 13 minutes.

Boynes and the Titans' Anthony Roberts each scored 22 points.

Coleman and Marlon Redmond scored 16 each for the winners. Bill Cartwright, the 6-foot-11 center who is the third freshman in San Francisco's starting lineup, had nine points in the second half and totaled 13.

The loss left Oral Roberts with a 5-2 record.

Lusk added to West team

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Long Beach State's Herb Lusk, the second leading running back in college football, was named Friday to the West squad for the 51st Shrine East-West Game.

Lusk replaced Missouri's Tony Galbreath, who decided to go home for Christmas rather than play in the all-star game scheduled Jan. 3 at Stanford Stadium.

La Verne crushed by Cal Baptist

RIVERSIDE — Cal Baptist College ripped La Verne with a 71-point second half here Friday night en route to a convincing 118-84 win over the Leos.

Cal Baptist broke open a close 47-40 game at the start of the second half with a 14-2 scoring binge and cruised home from there.

The contest marked the sixth time in ten starts the high scoring Riverside school has hit the century mark. Cal Baptist is 9-1 on the year.

The Leos, now 4-3 on the season, received a strong 23-point, nine-rebound game from Tim Gillette but turnovers and fouls hurt the locals' cause. Also fatal to La Verne was the hot shooting of the Lancers.

Cal Baptist put up 98 shots in the high-scoring fray and sank 50 of them. La Verne could make only 34 of 88 attempts from the field.

The Lancers also had the edge in rebounds, 52-43, and in free throws made, 18-16.

The hosts placed five men in double figures, paced by guard Jim Tough's 22 points. Ex-Chino High star Kevin Finnerty netted 18 for the winners.

In addition to Gillette, Howard Robison hit for 15, Carl Williamson for 12 and Dwight Washington for 10 for the lone Leos in dual figures in the box score.

The Leopards will be back home Tuesday night, as they host the University of San Diego at 8 p.m. at the Supertent.

Easy win for Indiana

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Top-ranked Indiana, paced by All-American Scott May's 18 points, whipped Georgia 93-56 in the first round of the Indiana Classic basketball tournament Friday night, giving Coach Bobby Knight his 200th career coaching victory.

The undefeated Hoosiers, playing most of the game with reserves, dominated the Bulldogs from the outset, building a 20-point margin at the half and coasting to victory with leads up to 44 points.

It took Georgia more than two minutes to score in the first half, and the Hoosier defense, totally smothering the Bulldogs' attack, held the visitors scoreless for six minutes at the start of the second period.

After a 44-24 intermission advantage, the 5-0 Hoosiers scored 22 straight points then built their biggest lead at 70-26 before Tony Flanagan hit the Bulldogs' first field goal of the second half midway through the half.

'Cats, Cavs fall in finals

Bonita and Montclair dropped their tourney finals Friday night, but Ontario Christian and La Verne Lutheran captured tourney games to advance to final round action.

Bonita dropped the consolation championship game in the Edgewood Tourney to Bishop Amat by a 94-76 score. Montclair lost out in the Third Place Championship at the Azusa Tourney to Charter Oak by a 63-49 margin.

OCHS advanced to the championship finals of the Notre Dame Tourney by whipping Aquinas 52-48, while La Verne Lutheran made it into the consolation finals of the Huntington Valley Tourney with a 58-53 win over Riverside Christian.

The lone non-tourney game played Friday night, Pomona High lost a 73-56 decision to host Mt. Carmel.

Bonita's Steve Sly poured in 28 points against Amat, but fouled out early in the third quarter to seal the Bearcats' doom.

The hot-shooting Amat squad clicked on 60 percent of its shots from the floor (41 of 68) for the game to down the Bearcats. Forward Carl Reul led the way for the victors with 29 points, as he hit 14 of 20 shots, mostly from long range.

Next high for Bonita (now 4-4 on the year) was Dave Drury with 16.

Montclair jumped off to an early 10-point lead against Charter Oak but couldn't hold off the Lancers in the second half.

The Cavs led 18-14 after the first quarter but C.O. took a 29-27 halftime lead and never trailed thereafter.

Montclair, now 2-5 on the season, was led by Steve Hossler with a 16-point effort, forward Derrin Pierce adding 11.

Ontario Christian made its way into the N.D. Tourney finals with a hard-fought win over Aquinas. John VanderSchaaf paced the winners with 22 points, including a perfect six-for-six night at the free throw line.

OCHS, with a 5-2 seaon mark, will play Yucca Valley tonight at 8:15 p.m. for the tourney championship.

Lutheran built up an early lead against Riverside Christian and hung on for the victory. The win puts the Trojans into the Huntington Valley consolation finals vs. Liberty Christian. That contest will be played at 4 p.m. this afternoon at Huntington Valley Christian.

Center Russ Houston had a season-high 22 points for Lutheran, and high-scoring forward Gregg Guenther added 20. The win gives L.V. a 5-2 record so far this year.

SC Open to McCord

By PHIL ROCHE
PB Staff Writer

Gary McCord has the cash now to play Santa Claus. The 27-year-old touring pro from Escondido collected $2,400 Friday by winning the Southern California Open at Via Verde Country Club with a 207 total.

McCord posted rounds of 70-67-70 to finish nine under par, two strokes ahead of Keith Lyford of Yorba Linda and Alan Tapie of Newport Beach, who each collected $1170 in second-place money.

Tapie and Lyford gave the bearded McCord all he could handle in a nip and tuck finish which wasn't decided until McCord stroked in a 3-foot birdie putt on the par 5 18th.

Playing in the final group with McCord, Tapie lost the tournament when he hit a streak of putting problems on the final nine. He three-putted the 377-yard 16th for a bogie 5, then promptly missed a 3-footer to take another bogie on the relatively easy 380-yard 17th.

He missed winning second place alone on the 497-yard 19th when his eagle putt just missed from 60 feet, and he settled for a tap-in 4.

Lyford, finishing before Tapie and McCord, put together rounds of 72-67-70, and just waited patiently for the two leaders to fade.

But McCord, playing steadily and at times superbly, finished like a champ. He parred 15 and 16 easily, then ran into trouble on the 17th when he hit his drive into a trap on the right.

He cut his 135-yard trap shot beautifully and wound up only 18 feet from the flagstick, almost sinking his birdie putt. He laid up in front of the par-5 18th, then chipped up close for his winning birdie putt.

Finishing at 211 were Don Pooley of Long Beach, Russ Fraser, and Jim Petralia, another touring pro from Glendora. Each pocketed $516.

Craig Stadler of La Jolla finished alone at 212 and made $400 for his three days' golf.

Wayne Searle, just out of the Marines, was low amateur with a 220 total. Charles Ortega was second at 222, and Glendora's Marsh Shoemaker was third.

Mounties drill FJC

Mt. San Antonio College advanced into the consolation finals of the Chaffey Tournament by routing Fullerton, 89-60. MSAC will face Grossmont who defeated Citrus, 70-66, in a 5 p.m. game today.

MSAC who trailed at half time, 36-35 opened the second half with a driving lay up by guard Jeff Cox and went on to outscore Fullerton by 30 points.

The Mounties used a rapid tempo and bruising inside game to subdue the Hornets. The Mounties forced Fullerton into many mistakes and played their brand of ball which they had not done consistently in the first half.

"We played very well said Coach Gene Victor. "We didn't play well emotionally in the first half but we picked it up and played with more enthusiasm in the second half."

MSAC pulled its starters midway through the second half but the bench kept the Mountie offense rolling and hit the boards with the same gusto the starters had.

Dick Rockwell and Kirk Christ scored 21 points off the bench, Rockwell scored 11 points and Christ added 10. Seldom used subs Scott McKeag and Steve Nichols also added to the Mounties blitz of the Hornets.

Fullerton who had burned MSAC several times in the first half with the back door play for easy baskets found this path of attack sealed off by the Mounties pressure defense. The Hornets one point half time lead quickly dissolved as MSAC outscored them 25-4 in the first eight minutes of the half.

Victor noted, "Our offensive play was much better in the second half. We boarded better and we played tighter defense."

MSAC was led in scoring by forward Tom Pokorski with 22 points. He also hauled down 14 rebounds. Pokorski kept the Mounties from falling farther behind the Hornets with 15 points in the first half and nine rebounds.

"He's a good rebounder," said Victor. "He can score from inside or outside and is a solid offensive leader."

Grossmont who trailed Citrus 49-46 with seven minutes exhausted in the second half went on to defeat the Owls by four points. Forward Jeff Sutton and center Dale Hoffman lead the Griffins with 14 points apiece. Reserve Curt Gandy scored 12 points off the bench.

Head Coach Felix Rodgers said, "I was pleased with our performance as Citrus is a much more improved team than the one we played earlier in the year. They are a solid ball club and are much more disciplined now.

"We played a good defensive game and offense supported it and Curt Gandy came off the bench to give us some super play. MSAC will be a tough club for us to handle and should be a good game."

Advertiser sues Cooke

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A resturant owner filed a $2.4 million damage suit against Los Angeles Lakers owner Jack Kent Cooke Friday, claiming he was denied the right to purchase radio time to advertise his restaurant during Lakers games.

The suit also seeks a permanent injunction to bar the Lakers from selling the radio advertising time to anyone but the restaurant's owner, Alfred Penni.

In the suit filed in superior court, Penni claims arrangements had been made with Forum advertising director John Myerson for the advertisements.

Stags fall to Cougars

By GRAHAM CROW
PB Correspondent

Claremont-Mudd and Azusa Pacific, two struggling teams with identical 2-5 seasonal records, poor shooting percentages and inadequate previous rebounding met Friday night at Ducey Memorial Gymnasium and one of them got straightened around.

The visiting Cougars, employing 11 solid ball players, outmanned Claremont 93-64 with Keith Walker leading the way for the winners.

Walker, the steadiest Azusa player all season, was high point scorer in the game with 18 points and the Cougar center hauled down 12 rebounds for game honors in that department as well.

Turnovers and poor rebounding were again the main problems for the Stags as they played the gracious hosts during the holiday season by committing 26 turnovers compared to just 17 by Azusa.

But the big difference in the game, which saw Azusa take 80 shots from the field compared to 65 by Claremont, was in rebounding where the Cougars enjoyed a commanding 51-31 edge.

Helping out Walker were forward Steve Gustin with 15 points and 11 rebounds while Ken Lukhard, after scoring just two in the first half ended with 14 and Mike Street added a dozen.

Ron Kasdorf was the only really effective player for Dave Wells' Stags as he led his team with 15 points and 11 boards. Center Dave Willhite scored 13 but only had two rebounds.

Fine shooting by Claremont (15 of 27) kept the game close in the first 20-minutes with Azusa outscoring C-M eight to two at the end of the half to enjoy a 39-31 intermission lead.

But when Claremont opened the second half with a zone defense, the quicker Cougars took advantage quickly, outscoring the Stags 9-2 before Wells could call timeout and regroup.

The biggest spurt, that put the game away, came midway through the final period when Azusa head coach Cliff Hamlow put his quickest defensive unit on the floor.

Calling a timeout when the Stags closed to within nine at 62-53, Hamlow then went into a half court trap, pressing style defense that worked to perfection as Claremont had no offensive pattern to speak of afterwards.

Over the next four minutes, the Cougars recorded a 17-1 blitz to open up an insurmountable 79-54 advantage.

"We promised ourselves that we would be 4-5 by Christmas," Hamlow told reporters afterwards, "and we're part way there." The rest of that promise can be kept tonight when the Cougars host Southern California College (2-4).

Sagehens defeated in tourney opener

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Pomona-Pitzer dropped its opener in the Grand Canyon College Invitational Basketball Tournament here Friday night, as Mesa State College of Colorado bested the Sagehens 86-60.

The locals stayed with Mesa for the first half, and trailed only by six at the break. But the Colorado squad put the game away early in the second half with a scoring blitz, sending Pomona-Pitzer down to its sixth defeat of the season against only two victories.

Guard Steve Pinkston led the 'Hens scoring with 13, while Brandon Boyd and Ed McFadden chipped in with 10 apiece. However, all five Mesa starters hit in double figures, led by forward Terry Meisenheimer's game-high 21 points.

The Sagehens will play for the tourney's consolation crown tonight at 6 p.m. against Western Colorado, a team which lost to host Grand Canyon College in Friday's other game.

Miami (Ohio) seeks third Tangerine win

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Miami of Ohio, the nation's 16th ranked college football team, goes after its third consecutive Tangerine Bowl victory today against a revitalized South Carolina squad.

Clear skies and cool weather were predicted for the 2 p.m. kickoff before a capacity crowd of 20,500, including an estimated 10,000 South Carolina fans ecstatic over the Gamecock's first winning season and first bowl invitation in six years.

Miami, the Mid-American Conference champion, is favored by four points but Coach Dick Crum says he questions the oddsmakers every time he thinks about the South Carolina offense, led by quarterback Jeff Grantz and a pair of 1,000-yard runners, Kevin Long and Clarence Williams.

"This is one of the most explosive teams we've faced," says Crum, who has posted victories over Florida and Georgia in the last two Tangerine Bowls. "If you let up on them for a second, they're gone and you're in a big hole."

For his part, South Carolina Coach Jim Carlen says he only has to look at Miami's record to know why the Redskins are favored.

"They're 10-1 this year, losing only to Michigan State by one point, and 21-1 over the last two years," says Carlen. "Their offense doesn't make mistakes and their defense causes mistakes."

Both coaches agree that Miami has a definite edge on defense. The Redskins allowed 213.9 yards a game this year compared to South Carolina's average yield of 414.2 yards a game.

Crum wants to give South Carolina the advantage on offense, but Carlen won't allow it.

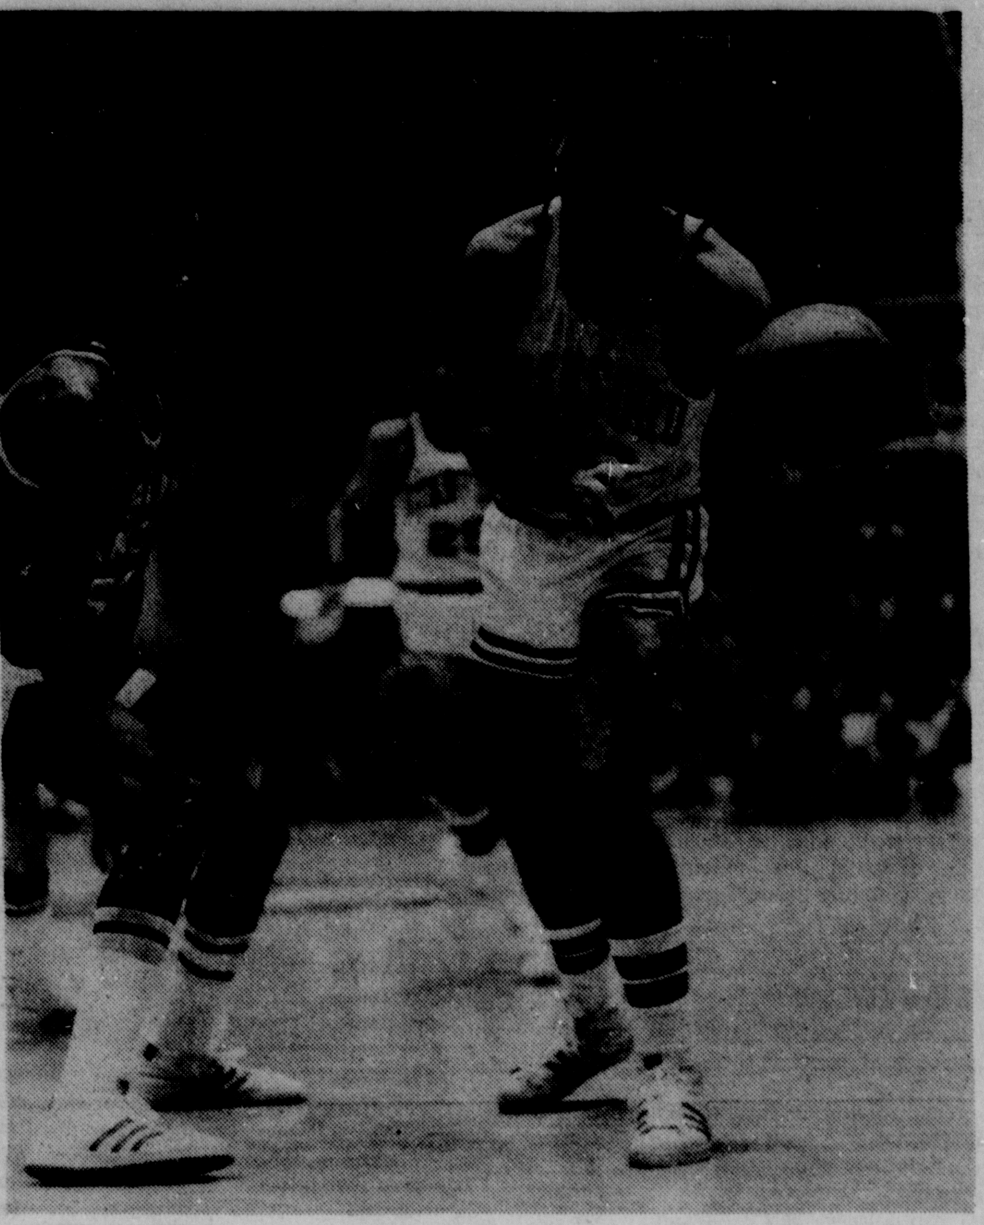
"That Grantz is fantastic," said Crum. "Just look at what he's done this year."

What Grantz has done in South Carolina's unexpected 7-4 season is rush for 484 yards and 12 touchdowns, pass for 1,587 yards and 16 touchdowns and punt for a 40-yard average.

Crum, however, talks about Miami quarterback Sherman Smith in equally superlative terms.

"Why, he rushed for almost 1,000 yards (938) and I don't know if there's another quarterback in the country—even one of those wishbone quarterbacks—who ran for that much yardage this year," Carlen said.

Miami, Carlen notes, also has a 1,000-yard-plus rusher of its own in tailback Rob Carpenter, who like Smith has scored 11 touchdowns this season.



TO FACE POLY — Former Mountie George Schrader will be playing for Stanford tonight against Poly. AT MSAC, Schrader averaged 24 points, nine rebounds a game last year.

Cal Poly tackles Stanford

By BILL LANGLEY
PB Sports Writer

STANFORD — Cal Poly gets another crack at the basketball "big time" here tonight when the Broncos tackle Stanford at Maples Pavilion.

After a recent road trip against the likes of Houston and Louisville, playing an opponent from the Pacific-8 Conference won't scare the Broncs.

Coach Don Hogan hopes his team can get two good halves together and give the Cardinals or Robber Barons or whatever Stanford is calling itself these days a good game in the 8 p.m. tipoff.

"We haven't been able to put two good halves together in one game," Hogan said after Thursday's 96-80 win over Point Loma in which the Broncs trailed 47-43 at halftime.

Poly takes a 3-5 season record into tonight's game as Hogan's team plays its first 11 games on the road.

Stanford, which has been idle for 11 days because of final exams, is 2-2 for the season under new coach Dick DiBiaso, a former assistant at Notre Dame on Digger Phelps' staff.

DiBiaso, who succeeded Howard Dallmer, had a lot of work in rebuilding Stanford's roster. Four starters — including seven-footer Rich Kelley — were graduated from last year's team which upset UCLA.

His prize recruit if 6-6 forward George Schader, who was a JC All-American last year for Coach Gene Victor at Mt. San Antonio College. The former Covina High star averaged 22.8 points and 10 rebounds a game for the Mounties.

At Stanford, Schader is averaging 13 points and 6.8 rebounds.

The other Cardinal starters are forward Ed Schweitzer (6-8½), eenter Tim Patterson (6-11) and guards Mike Bratz (6-2) and Jay Carter (6-4). Schweitzer earned All-Pac 8 second team status last year when he averaged 15.5 points and eight rebounds a game.

Stanford's top freshman is guard Wolfe Perry (6-2), who made the All-Tournament team last year at the San Dimas Tournament of Champions when he played at Oakland Tech.

The Cards have defeated Nevada Reno (94-70) and Montana State (95-76) but lost to neighbors Santa Clara (70-67) and USF (49-44).

"We came through the first part of our schedule in pretty good shape," DiBiaso said.

Poly will feature top scorers in guards Joe Sills and Jack Gamulin, who are averaging 23.6 and 20.1 points a game respectively. Sills is coming off a 32-point performance against Point Loma for his highest total in his two-year career at Poly while Gamulin added 21.

Gamulin will be no stranger to this area since he played for nearby San Jose State before transferring to Poly.

The other Poly starters will probably be forwards Paul Newton and Bill Cantwell plus center Mark Bernhard. Newton is averaging 10.0 points and 9.9 rebounds a game.

Reserve guard David Kennedy will be available tonight after missing the Point Loma game because of the flu. The Broncos have also added freshman forward Jack Costello, who scored his first four points of the season Thursday after missing the first seven games with an ankle injury.

Reveal injuries to Colts

BALTIMORE (AP) — Bert Jones, the young quarterback of the Baltimore Colts, apparently played several games with cracked ribs during the team's current eight-game winning streak.

Although Jones was first hurt on Nov. 9, X rays didn't show the seriousness of the injury until four weeks later. And that was disclosed Thursday.

"Bert's ribs were cracked in two or three places," said Mike O'Shea, assistant trainer for the National Football club. "But they are not cracked now."

X rays taken after Jones was hurt in a 42-35 victory over the Buffalo Bills appeared negative. But later ones showed thin lines of calcium, which indicated there had been hairline cracks in the ribs.

"Sometimes hairline cracks don't show up on X rays," O'Shea said. "They show up weeks later when the calcium builds up during the healing process."

Baltimore's victory over Buffalo, after overcoming a 21-0 deficit, evened the team's record at 4-4. Coach Ted Marchibroda has called it the pivotal game in helping the Colts come of age following last year's 2-12 record and a 1-4 start.

Last Sunday, the Colts again came from behind to beat the Miami Dolphins 10-7 in overtime. They take a 9-4 mark into Sunday's home game against the New England Patriots. A victory would wrap up the title in the American Conference East.

"He's had games where he's thrown for more yardage and completed tougher passes," Marchibroda said. "But the Miami game was by far the best he's had from a standpoint of play-calling, even though his play-calling has been excellent all season."

When Jones directed the tying touchdown drive of 86 yards and another lengthy march for the winning field goal against the Dolphins, Marchibroda said, "he went against all his natural instincts.

"It's Bert's style to go for the big play, to try to bomb the opposition," Marchibroda said. "But he knew exactly what he had to do to beat Miami, and he did it. He picked them apart with good plays—four yards here, five there, never doing anything that could kill the drive. It was a masterpiece of work, both times."

During his first two years with the Colts, Jones missed valuable training time because of the College All-Star game and the players' strike.

"His first two years weren't good years," said Marchibroda, a rookie head coach this season. "You could say in some ways he just started off this year."

In two previous seasons, Jones completed 186 passes for 2,149 yards, 12 touchdowns and was intercepted 24 times. This year, he's completed 185 passes for 2,302 yards and 17 touchdowns and has been intercepted only seven times. He hasn't been intercepted in his last four games. Over that span, he's completed 56 of 88 passes.

While Jones has worn protective pads during games and was in pain again last Sunday, Marchibroda reported the young quarterback "feels better this week than he did last week."

Lynn led in slugging too

NEW YORK (AP) — Rookie Fred Lynn of Boston led the American League in slugging percentage with a mark of .566 during the 1974-75 season, American League statistics showed.

Kansas City's John Mayberry finished second with a percentage of .547, according to statistics released Friday.

Mayberry also led the league in walks with 119. Rod Carew of Minnesota, who was seventh in slugging at .497, was tops in intentional walks with 18, and Jeff Burroughs of Texas had the most strikeouts, 155.

The National League made it four in a row and 12 out of 13 when it beat the American League 6-3 in the 1975 All-Star game in Milwaukee.

Sports briefs

SAN JUAN (AP) — Roberto Duran, the hard-hitting world lightweight boxing champion from Panama, defends against little-known, but high-ranking lefty Leonicio Ortiz of Mexico Saturday, and most observers agree that Duran will win inside the scheduled 15 rounds.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Forward Gus Gerard of the American Basketball Association's Spirits of St. Louis has been sold to the Denver Nuggets for an undisclosed amount of cash and future considerations, the Spirits announced Friday.

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Basketball Association said Friday that five of its remaining seven teams will qualify for this season's playoffs and that, despite the loss of three franchises this year, expansion is being considered for 1976-77.

Further, with the elimination of divisional play because of the death of the Baltimore, San Diego and Utah teams, the All-Star Game Jan. 27 in Denver will send the league leader as of Jan. 18 against stars from the other six clubs, the ABA said.

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Bjorn Borg and Jan Kodes gave Sweden and Czechoslovakia a 1-1 tie Friday after the the first two singles matches in the 1975 Davis Cup final.

Watched by a partisan crowd of 4,000, including King Carl Gustaf, Borg whipped Jiri Hrebec 6-1, 6-3, 6-0, giving Sweden a 1-0 lead in the best-of-five match series.

BOSTON (AP) — Third baseman Rico Petrocelli, sidelined briefly last season with inner ear problems, will be back with the American League champion Boston Red Sox

Poly girls crush SLO

Cal Poly's women's basketball team whipped rival Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, 91-34, Friday night to highlight the first round of the Invitational Basketball Tournament at Poly.

Coach Darlene May's team will advance to the semifinals at 2 p.m. today against UC Santa Barbara, a 49-36 winner over Biola. Friday's other first round winners were USC, 91-30 over Cal State Los Angeles, and Long Beach State, 86-44 over Fresno State.

The championship game will start at 8 p.m. tonight.

Musiette McKinney, a freshman from Ganesha High, led Poly with 17 points. She was followed by Barb Thaller with 15 and Mary Reichert, Mary Lu Stephenson and Jill Spencer with 12 apiece.

Tulane tabs Smith to succeed Ellender

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Larry Smith, an assistant coach at Arizona University, has been named head coach at Tulane University, a spokesman for Tulane said Friday.

Smith succeeds Bennie Ellender, who was dismissed after Tulane posted a 4-7 record last season.

Smith was an assistant to Bo Schembechler at Miami, Ohio, and went with Schembechler to Michigan. Smith coached the offensive line at Michigan for four years, then moved to Arizona in 1972, where he worked under Jim Young.

His signing with Tulane breaks a 20-year association with Young that started when Smith was an end at Bowling Green and Young was an assistant coach.

When Young took a high school coaching job in 1962, he named Smith his assistant. Smith took over the High school head coaching job when Young moved to Miami of Ohio to be Schembechler's assistant. Three years later Smith joined Young at Miami, coaching the defensive ends.

When Young was named head coach at Arizona after the 1972 season, he named Smith as his defensive coordinator.

The terms of Smith's contract at Tulane were not announced.

Ellender was fired from the Tulane post about three weeks after reports circulated that he was on his way out. The delay in the firing was apparently caused by extensive negotiations concerning the remaining eight years of Ellender's contract.

While the dismissal was in the works, however, alumni acted without university sanction and began contacting potential replacements.

Young was one of the first successful head coaches to whom feelers were issued. Also contacted were George Welsh of Navy, Bob Tyler of Mississippi State and Darryl Rogers of San Jose State.

Smith toured the Superdome with four alumni Wednesday, met with Tulane's selection committee later in the day and his hiring was announced Thursday.

Two-year pact for Mets' Lolich

NEW YORK (AP) — A week ago, the New York Mets told Mickey Lolich how much they wanted him.

On Friday, they gave him more tangible evidence, signing the veteran left-hander to a two-year, six-figure contract that will make it a little easier for him to leave Detroit.

The Mets acquired Lolich on the final day of baseball's winter meetings in a deal that sent outfielder Rusty Staub to Detroit. But before the trade could be completed, the Tigers needed the veteran left-hander's permission.

And Lolich wasn't giving that permission easily.

"They called me at 1:30 in the morning last Friday and told me about the trade," recalled Lolich. "They kind of snuck up on me."

The next morning, Lolich barely had his eyes open when the phone started ringing. "I said to myself, 'Here we go again,'" he recalled.

The first problem was to stop that terrible ringing, and so the pitcher took the telephone off the hook. Next he sat down to talk the matter over with his wife, Joyce, and attorney Bob Fenton.

They agreed that if the Mets wanted him so badly, it might not hurt to talk to them about it. So he put the receiver back on the hook and let the ringing resume. When the conversations ended, Lolich had a raise in salary and a two-year contract—two little niceties that he doesn't think he could have gotten from the Tigers after a 12-18 season in 1975. And the Mets had one of baseball's top left-handers for their starting rotation.

Lolich thinks that with him, Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman, that rotation might be the best in the National League.

"I think we'll be able to scare a few people," he said. "Especially in Pittsburgh."

Good Shepherd Lutheran

The traditional Christmas Eve family worship will be held at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Claremont, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

A brief celebration of the Holy Communion will follow.

Mrs. Gerhard Rostvold will be assistant celebrant.

The worship will include traditional Christmas hymns and carols, and scripture readings.

Three choirs will sing, accompanied by instrumentalists including Bonnie Snortum, Sonja Snortum, Chris Sorrensen, and Karen Myers.

Mrs. Frederick Moore will conduct the choirs.

Sermonette for the evening, "Born This Day a Savior," will be given by Pastor Lloyd E. Jacobson.

The Festival of the Holy Communion will be celebrated Sunday at 8:30 a.m.

Don Gabiner will be assistant celebrant and Mrs. Robert Anderson as lector.

Pastor Jacobson will preach on "Annunciation Plus."

The regular worship service will follow at 11 a.m.

Immanuel Lutheran

A children's Christmas program will be presented at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Chino.

The program will take the audience back to Bethlehem itself on the first Christmas Eve. The audience will participate in singing while shepherds, angels, tax collectors, wise men and census enrollees mingle among the congregation.

The worship service Sunday morning at 10 will be highlighted by conclusion of a liturgical preparation for the coming of the Christ child. The Rev. Martin Keck, pastor, will discuss "Immanuel — God With Us!"

On Monday, the Youth Corps at the church will hold its annual Christmas party and caroling time. It will sing to shut-ins and elderly persons.

The church will celebrate Christmas Day with Holy Communion, songs, choir anthems, prayers and praise. Mr. Keck will discuss "Jesus' Birthday."

Christ Lutheran Church

Christ Lutheran Church in Chino will sponsor a festive celebration Sunday at 8:15 and 10:45 a.m. services, in which several persons will be received into membership.

"Commitment Sunday" will feature members bringing forward pledges of "time, talent and treasure." The Rev. A. L. Plueger will discuss "Christmas and Your Destiny." Bible classes and the adult forum will meet at 9:30 a.m.

"Come, Lord Jesus" will be the theme of the Sunday parish school Christmas program at 7 p.m. Treats for children will be available.

On Christmas Eve, duplicate candlelight services will feature the choir with a cantata entitled "Night of Miracles," by John W. Peterson. Mr. Plueger will present a sermonette, "Your Gift Under the Tree."

Trinity Lutheran Church

The children of the Sunday school will present the story of Jesus' birth during the 6:30 Christmas Eve worship service at Trinity Lutheran Church in Montclair.

The entire congregation will participate in a candlelight service at 10 a.m. Christmas Day. The service theme is "The Great Light — Jesus."

Christmas carols, sang a capella by the choir as well as by the congregation, will be part of the 10 a.m. Sunday worship. The Rev. Maynard Saeger, pastor, will preach on the topic "God Says: Soon."

Members of the church will go caroling to the shut-in and residents of area rest homes on Sunday night.

Faith Lutheran Church

Christmas carols and decorations of a Christmas tree will mark the 10 a.m. Sunday service at Faith Lutheran Church of San Dimas.

Christmas Eve will be observed with a family service at 7 p.m. "Come Lord Jesus" will be the theme of the service.

The Rev. Ray F. Kibler, pastor, will speak on the subject "Here's a Present for You" at the 10 a.m. service on Christmas Day. Music will be provided by the junior and adult choirs at all services.

Claremont Presbyterian

Claremont Presbyterian Church will hold a Christmas Eve candle-light service Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary.

The Sanctuary, Chancel, Westminster, Primary and Handbell choirs will participate.

Al Eisenwinter will read a Christmas story, and Moni Law and Paul McElhoe will assist.

The Rev. James W. Angell will deliver the Christmas message of "The Impossible Just Takes a Little Longer" Sunday at 10 a.m.

A service of Holy Communion will be held at 8:30 a.m. in the chancel.

Greater New Light Baptist

Members of the youth department at the Greater New Light Baptist Church in Pomona will present their annual Christmas pageant Sunday at 4 p.m. under the direction of Louise Shropshire, minister of music.

The church will hold a Christmas sunrise service at 6 a.m. Thursday at the church. Immediately afterward, women of the church will serve breakfast.

Church of the Open Bible

Malcolm Mcleod, professor of botany at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, will present a lecture and pictures about his trip to the World Botanical Congress in Russia at 7:30 tonight at the Church of the Open Bible in La Verne.

The pictures will include trips to Pyatigorsk, Mt. Elbrus and Moscow.

Our Lady of Assumption

Christmas Eve services at Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Church in Claremont will begin with Masses at 4 p.m., 5:30 p.m., 7 p.m., and carol singing at 11:30 p.m.

Midnight Mass will be concelebrated by the priests of the parish with the Rev. Msgr. William J. Barry, pastor, as main celebrant.

The church choir, directed by John Wheeler, will sing. Organist will be Jim Stoneman.

Other Masses on Christmas Day will be celebrated at 7:30 a.m., 9 a.m., 10 a.m., 11:15 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. with congregational singing. The 11:15 a.m. service will be a Christmas Folk Mass.

Macedonia Baptist Church

"A Festival of Songs" is the title of the annual Christmas program which Macedonia Baptist Church Choir, Pomona, will present Sunday at 6:50 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. Jeanette Banks.

Pianist will be Miss Angela Banks. Featured soloists will be Mrs. Barbara Nelson, Mrs. Naomi Monroe, Alfred Stewart, Clifford Griffin and Leroy Williams.

Choir president and program chairman is Mrs. Willia Mae Brewster.

Chino United Methodist

Chino United Methodist Church will celebrate Christmas with "The King's Birthday Party" on Sunday at 6 p.m.

Games and refreshments will be available for the event. It will get under way in the social hall and conclude in the sanctuary with music and a tableau.

The Rev. W. Stanley Creighton will present as his sermon, "I Love You" at the 10:45 a.m. service.

On Christmas Eve, the traditional Communion service will begin at 11 p.m.

Pomona Church of God

"A Visitor for Christmas" will be the title of a film to be shown Sunday at a 6 p.m. Christmas service at the Pomona Church of God.

The service will also include caroling.

Earlier Sunday at 11 a.m. a children's Christmas program will be presented under the direction of Lydia Fortner.

On Monday at 7 p.m. a Christmas skating party will be held by the church at Pomona Skateland.

New Gethsemane Church

The Youth Department of the New Gethsemane Church of God in Christ in Pomona will present a play entitled "One Night in Bethlehem" Sunday at 6 p.m. at the church.

The play will be directed by Clarence Robbins.

The program is to raise canned goods for donation to needy families. Persons are asked to bring any kind of canned goods.

First Brethren of L.V.

The choir of the First Brethren Church of La Verne will present "His Love Reaching," a Christmas cantata by Ron Huff and Bill and Gloria Gaither, at 11 a.m. Sunday.

The cantata will be directed by Gary Stidham. Soloists will be Dave Belcher, Charles Doyen, Eddie Swihart and Carol and Gary Stidham.

Farewell sermon

The Rev. Irving E. Sullivan, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, Upland, will give his farewell sermon at the 11 a.m. service Sunday. He has accepted the pastorate of the First Church of the Nazarene in Bakersfield starting the first of the year.

Christmas treats will be distributed at the 9:45 a.m. Sunday school. The annual Christmas musical program, with selections by the Christmas Choir, the New Song and the Children's Choir, will be held at 6 p.m. Manuel Salinas conducts.

7 joys is Yule theme

"The Seven Joys of Christmas" will be the theme of the Christmas Eve candlelight service Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Claremont United Methodist Church.

Participating in the service will be combined choirs directed by Don Brinegar, director of music; a dance ensemble choreographed by Jim Maynard; and the handbell choirs directed by Jane Weidhofer.

Christmas Sunday will be celebrated by with the Rev. James W. Dallas preaching on "The Great Search" at both the 9:15 and the 11:05 a.m. worship services.

The combined choirs will be directed by Brinegar. The Youth Handbell Choir will perform at both services.

Between 10:10 and 11 a.m., members of the church will bring homemade Christmas pastries to share during the festive Christmas coffee hours fellowship.

The Christmas vespers program directed by Rev. Karen Van Hook, associate minister, will be held in the sanctuary at 5 p.m.

Valley woman visits Pope

Mrs. Frances Klug of City of God, St. Joseph's Hill of Hope, Carbon Canyon, received the Holy Eucharist from Pope Paul VI during a recent visit to Rome, Italy.

The occasion was the canonization of Saint Oliver Plunkett. Pope Paul gives communion to only a "select few" according to a spokesman for the Hill of Hope. There were about 150,000 persons in St. Peter's Piazza on Sept. 28, the day Mrs. Klug received Communion.

Mrs. Klug has traveled to various places around the world including Belgium, Holland, Scotland, England and Canada, in response to "numerous requests."

OK extension of funds for Model Cities

LOS ANGELES (AP)— City Council members have approved approximately $5 million to continue operations of 21 Model Cities projects through June 30 next year.

Council members also voted Wednesday to continue six more Model Cities projects through January, hoping additional funds will become available by then to finance them through June.

Gilbert Archletta, assistant chief legislative analyst, said funds for the projects were obtained from savings or unspent funds from the next fiscal year.

Terry J. Hatter Jr., director of the office of urban development, said $100,000 of the newly approved funds would be utilized for the Community Concern program, which helps paroled prisoners, and the one-stop immigration project, which assists immigrants in citizenship and other matters.

RELIGIOUS PRESENTATION — Joseph and Mary will be the leading characters in the second annual presentation of the Christmas story nightly at Bethany Baptist Church. The story will be told each night at 7:30 through Tuesday on the church's stage.

Glory Chorus to sing

The Glory Chorus, a 75-voice group, will present Christmas in story and song at 9 p.m. Sunday at the Ontario Christian Reformed Church.

Produced and directed by Jim Lagestee, the original production features a series of musical tableaus depicting the story of the birth of Christ.

The audience is an integral part of the program, joining the chorus in several familiar carols.

The Glory Chorus was organized in March and is associated with the Church. Lagestee majored in music at Southern Illinois University and the Chicago Conservatory of Music. He served as director of the 74th U.S. Army Band Glee Club.

Major accompanists for the chorus are Miss Lorae Ruisch, pianist, and Mrs. Nellie Teune, organist.

Soloists for the program include Rose Wigboldy, soprano; Patty Berg, tenor; Pam Tillema, soprano; Helen Van Beek, trumpet; and Mary Aukeman, soprano.

The program is open to the public. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the evening.

Factory jobs

Some 19 million people now hold U.S. manufacturing jobs. Behind every manufacturing employe is an average capital investment of more than $31,580, according to The Conference Board. Investment is highest in the oil industry — which averages $203,000 for each worker.

Bethany nightly portrayals due

The second annual presentation of the Christmas story, portrayed by members of Bethany Baptist Church of Montclair, will continue nightly through Tuesday on the church's outdoor stage.

The half-hour program will begin at 7:30 p.m. It is narrated and orchestrated by a professionally created tape background. Live animals and more than 30 costumed characters will be featured in the nine scenes.

The Rev. D. L. Bray, pastor, and the Rev. Paul E. Kealy, minister of music, are co-directors of the presentation. The technical crew includes Jim Souders, sets; James Patrick, props; Lorene Kealy, costumes; Carol Souders, makeup; Sam Angle, lighting; Rick Blackmon, sound; and Martin Grisso, security.

The public is invited to attend the presentations. Warm dress is suggested.

Nazarene church has new pastor

The Rev. Jim Hamilton is new pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Alta Loma - Cucamonga. Meetings are held in the choral room of Alta Loma High School.

Mr. Hamilton has served churches in Kansas and California over the past 13 years. His most recent pastorate was in Norco where he lived four years.

Mrs. Hamilton lends her support to her husband's ministry through music. The Hamiltons have three daughters.

This church started as a Sunday school, sponsored by the Upland Church of the Nazarene. It first met at Central School in Cucamonga. Mrs. Paul Neal was Sunday school coordinator. It outgrew that meeting place.

Sunday school starts at 9:30 a.m. with morning worship at 10:45 a.m.

The new church's first Christmas program will be presented Sunday with a combined service at 9:30 a.m.

The Hamilton family is living at 8784 Monte Vista Ave., Alta Loma.

Church of the Brethren

Adult and junior choirs at Pomona Church of the Brethren will present Christmas music at the 10:30 a.m. service Sunday.

Mrs. Dale Keedy, soloist, will present "Slumber O Holy Jesus."

The High school group will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. at the home of Jerry Redman for a Christmas party.

South Hills Presbyterian

Guest soloist Alice Moland will sing "O Holy Night" at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at the South Hills Presbyterian Church in Pomona.

"The Wise Worship" will be the sermon topic.

Adult and children's choirs will present a cantata titled "Night of Miracles" at 6:30 p.m. Narrator will be Elder Lucius Hill.

There will be the annual Christmas tree with gifts for the children.

Our Savior Lutheran

Several events are planned by Our Saviour Lutheran Church in La Verne to mark the birth of Jesus.

A congregational Christmas party is scheduled for 6 p.m. Sunday. A Christmas play written by Mrs. Jane Peterson will be presented before Sunday school children.

A Christmas Eve service of song and story is scheduled at 7:30 Wednesday. It will be conducted by the Rev. Edward Busch, acting pastor of the newly formed congregation.

Sunday school program

The Sunday school of the First Lutheran Church in Pomona will present a special Christmas program Sunday at 4:30 p.m.

The theme will be "Come to Bethlehem" and the program will include a pageant and singing under the direction of Mrs. James Cordes.

Sets were built by the Junior and Senior Lutheran leagues.

On Sunday at the church's 9 a.m. worship service, the Rev. Norbert J. Boer, pastor, will deliver a sermon entitled "That Child — Yours or Ours?"

The church will have special Christmas Eve services on Wednesday at 7:30 and 11 p.m. Pastor Boer will deliver the sermon at the 7:30 p.m. service, while the Rev. Morgan Sly of the First Christian Church will be the guest speaker at the 11 p.m. service.

On Christmas, the church will have a 10 a.m. service with Pastor Boer's sermon topic to be "We Focus on Bethlehem."

Harpist, choirs to perform

Harpist Harriet Wood will accompany the combined choirs of the Pilgrim Congregational Church in Pomona Wednesday as the church presents its annual Christmas Eve candlelight service at 7:30.

The musical program will be directed by Frank Cummings, minister of music.

Barbara Don will be the guest violinist, playing, "Ave Maria" in a setting by August Wilhelmj.

Four choirs of about 140 persons will perform, directed by Dolores Weck and Susan Winckler.

Soloists will be Janet Tate, Dawn Jones, John Tate, Richard Arhlen, accompanied by Maxine Brechbiel, organist, and Mary Lewis and Carol Evans, pianists.

Other instrumentalists will be Bradford Tozier, Tonia and Tina Barfield, Marshall Miller, Betsey Farrand, Patti Sharp, Carolyn McDaniel and David Kellner.

LeRoy Hughes will tell the Christmas story and the Rev. Donald Keepers will speak on the "Fifth Candle."

HARRIET WOOD

Mineral Riches

Ninety-five per cent of the world's gem emeralds are produced by Colombia. The Muzo emerald mines, 75 miles from the capital of Bogota, have been in operation for four centuries. The mineral-rich South American nation also produces such precious metals as gold, silver, copper and plantinum as well as lead, mercury, manganese, iron, nickel and coal.

Rose Parade trip set

The Montclair United Methodist Church will sponsor a trip to the Tournament of Roses Parade on New Year's Day.

The tour will begin at 6 a.m. in the west parking lot of the Montclair Plaza near the May Co's west doors. Chartered buses will take passengers to the Holliston United Methodist Church in Pasadena where they will be given breakfast and have a grandstand seat for the parade.

One hundred tickets are available on a first come, first served basis. The total cost of the trip is $20 person. Reservations may be made by contacting the church office, 624-3112, 624-5112 or 626-4252; or sending a check to the church, P.O. Box 89, Montclair 91763.

Night flight conflict delays OIA noise plan

The Los Angeles Board of Airport Commissioners has postponed action on a noise abatement policy for Ontario International Airport after protests from the Ontario City Council.

The noise policy, coupled with an airport expansion plan, calls for construction of runways to the east to reduce airport noise 'over south Ontario.

Objections by the City Council to certain provisions in the policy held up approval, however, until next month.

The council's protests centered around the lack of a timetable for land acquisition east of the airport and no guarantee that the airport commission would discourage nighttime flights out of OIA.

Airport commissioners so far have indicated they will not change their position on those issues.

Councilmen suggested that the noise policy, instead of opposing a curfew on nighttime flights, should say that if nighttime operations increase the current noise impact, "a curfew shall be considered."

Alexander Pope, chairman of the airport commission, said cutting out evening flights would reduce total operations at OIA by one-third. That would mean a good chance of not obtaining through flights to the East Coast, he added.

Programs by young at Peace Lutheran

Children from 3 to 13 will present the first of three Christmas programs Sunday at 4:30 p.m. at the Pomona Peace Lutheran Church.

It is entitled "Poor Little Babe of Bethlehem."

Afterward, a potluck supper will be served in fellowship hall.

A Christmas Eve candlelight service will be held Wednesday at 6 p.m. It will be a service of song and meditation.

Christmas morning at 9 a.m. there will be a service of Holy Communion.

The Rev. Ed Krueger, pastor, will deliver "A Word for All."

Sunday at 9 a.m. there will be a "Celebration of the Coming of the Light of the World." Pastor Krueger will speak on the subject, "Come on, Grump, Rejoice!"

Holy Communion will be celebrated.

Not work of feared rapist

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police say a man arrested in connection with the death of a 70-year-old woman is probably not the person wanted as the West Side Rapist.

A police spokesman said there was some indication of similarities between the killing of Annette Weingarten in the Crenshaw area Nov. 19 and eight other murders of elderly women on the West Side.

But a special task force assigned to the series of attacks said there was no connection between that death and the others, the spokesman said Thursday.

James P. Richard, 22, was booked for investigation of burglary and murder and awaits a preliminary hearing later this month, police said.

The so-called West Side rapist has attacked 30 women.

MUSIC . . . the voice of Christmas

(Story on page 4)

Shelby Lyman on chess

The rise and fall of Morphy

Though we have often been told of Paul Morphy's triumphant European tour, his impact back home has been a neglected story.

The fact is his exploits excited a chess explosion. There were bids to receive him in most every major city. Chess became the activity and the news of the day.

The New York Times, for example, devoted the first four columns of the first page in its May 26, 1859 issue to his reception at the University of the City of New York.

A few days later, there were included amongst the personages honoring him in Boston the notables Louis Agassiz, James Russell Lowell, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow and Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Thereafter, Morphy did make a brief tour (receiving testimonials and playing exhibitions as he went). But he quickly withdrew from the spotlight though. "The entire country now inflamed with chess, broke out with chess columns in its leading publications."

The man, who was the nonpareil of chess, had refused to be identified as a chessplayer.

First Cuban Grandmaster

Cuba recently gained its first grandmaster since Capablanca, when Silvino Garcia was granted that title.

Garcia is one of many rising Cuban players who have the same abundant talents and expectation for achievement that characterized Cuban athletes in the recent Pan-American games.

In diagram two, we see the high point for Garcia in the recent Alekhine memorial tournament in Moscow.

At this point, Silvino played the pleasing 1. NxP! Of course 1. . . QxN yields to the butcherous 2.B-K6.

Vaganian's 1.KxN fared little better. It was immediately refuted by 2. B-B6! which threatens both 3.B-K6 and 3. RxR with substantial material advantage.

Below is a brief losing effort by Garcia against ex-world champ Michale Tal, who nailed the new grandmaster expertly in an unorthodox opening.

Tal (White)	Garcia (Black)
1. P-K4	P-K4
2. N-KB3	N-QB3
3. B-N5	KN-Q2
4. P-B3	P-QR3
5. B-R4	P-QN4
6. B-N3	P-Q4
7. P-Q3	P-KR3
8. PxP	NxP
9. Q-K2	B-K2
10. NxP	NxN
11. QxN	B-N2

White wins! How?

Answer to Solve-It: White sees that he may remove the black knight with his bishop. But that try is blocked by his own knight. Thus the 'desperado' move 1.N-Q5! After 1 . . . PxN, white's 2.BxN easily wins.

It happened in Pomona

In January, 1893, an article in The Los Angeles Express had this to say about Pomona:

"It is the chief town in two valleys from Pasadena to San Bernardino and one of the most progressive in the country. Its population is in the neighborhood of 5,000, yet only 15 years ago the San Jose Rancho in which Pomona is located was a sheep run covered with sage brush. A few years ago Mr. Loop sold some of this same land to the Pomona Land and Water Company for $100,000 including water rights. Financial reverses caused a dull until 1882 and the most rapid growth of the town has been within the past six years. Around Pomona are 25 square miles of orchard land. The water supply is first class and there is an air of prosperity on every hand."

To give you a still better idea of what attractive opportunities Pomona had to offer prospective home owners in those days, I quote from the February 11, 1893 issue of The Pomona Weekly Times.

"Architect Ferdinand Davis has plans prepared for a beautiful cottage for Mr. F. B. King. There are to be seven rooms aside from closets, pantries and bathroom. The design is very attractive. It is to be built on Holt Avenue next to Cyrus Burdick's home and will cost $2,500."

And even though in that same issue of The Pomona Weekly Times one reads: "We understand that the wagon road between here and Los Angeles is impassible owing to the loss of a large bridge near the township line. Three bridges were carried away by the storm in this road district." — somehow I still think I would have liked Pomona better then.

Child abuse rises at holiday season

MIAMI (AP) — The Christmas holiday season is supposed to be a time of cheer, but it's also the time when child abuse is most rampant, child-care workers warn.

Officials said Tuesday that more than 300 hospital reports of child abuse have been filed in Florida for the first 15 days of December, as opposed to 420 reports for all of November. They say the increase in child abuse as the holidays approach is a national trend.

"There has always been a big increase of child abuse around holidays," said Dr. Irwin Redlener, a pediatrician.

Redlener attributed the increase to emotional stress during the holidays coupled with the current economic problems.

Alberta Murphy, a state welfare worker, agreed that the economy plays a large role.

"There's not enough money and there's a little too much holiday cheer — alcohol," she said, adding

Drug helps experiment on monkeys

CHICAGO (AP) — Hardening of the arteries in monkeys can be dramatically reversed with a drug, cholestyramine, now used for other medical purposes, a University of Chicago research team has demonstrated.

Monkeys are commonly used as models for humans in atherosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) experiments.

Love is Like a Heat Wave

This is going to be Linda Ronstadt's biggest year. Everything is coming up roses, including her big hits "Heat Wave", and, on the flip side, "Love Is A Rose". She's into gold records on the singles charts and her latest LP, "Prisoner In Disguise", is a platinum winner. Probably what really did it for Linda was when Peter Asher, who used to be a singer himself, signed on as Manager-Producer. He's the man behind James Taylor, too. In addition, Linda, who is now 29, seems to have quit changing boyfriends so often. Her steady, comedian, Albert Brooks, has hung in there for a year now and has been a steadying influence. Seems like all the influences, including her stars, are being good to Linda Ronstadt this year.

Antique wise Q. and A.

I have five Maxfield Parish prints — Morning, Evening, Daybreak, Stars and Dreaming. On the back of each reads "The House of Art Prints, Maxfield Parish." I would like to know if I have something of value, or just plain pictures. Mrs. C.R.E. (East).

You have a grouping of collectible prints, and if in good condition, they are of value to collectors. Since you did not state size, I can only tell you that prints approximately 12''x16'', unframed, are priced from about $25 upward to around $35 in your area.

* * *

I am enclosing photos of a signed "Handel" table lamp, in addition to a copy of a recent article written by you which illustrated a similar table lamp. Judging from its value, I'm curious to know just how valuable my lamp is. It is 28 inches tall, and in perfect condition. There are eight greenish yellow petals with shades of white on the outer layers, and within this layer is another with 8 iridescent white petals. Then inside this is a thid layer. The petals making up the smaller attached light are green with shades of white. Thank you for any information concerning the value of my lamp. H.K. (Southeast)

Your signed Handel table lamp is worth from $500 to around $700 — in your locality.

(Unfortunately, the lily lamp featured in an earlier column, damaged and unsigned, should have been priced around the $300 figure instead of $3000. Occasionally, a human error can occur — and in this instance the typographical error was made when my copy was retyped for release. Regrettably, your newspaper did not receive the correction notice until after the column was printed.)

From my enclosed sketch of the mark that appears on several plates I own, can you tell me this age and origin? Neither the name of the pattern "Parisian" or the name of the potter "G. Phillips" is very clear, as these pieces have had much usage over the years. C.U. (Midwest)

The mark on your plates was used by Staffordshire potter George Phillips between 1834-1848 — at his Longport pottery in England.

Interphil '76 commemorated

By GUSTAV DETJEN, JR.

A 1976 commemorative stamp honoring Interphil '76, the seventh International Philatelic Exhibition, will be issued in Philadelphia on Jan. 17. Interphil '76 takes place in Philadelphia May 29 through June 6, 1976. Across the top of the design appears "INTERPHIL". Beneath that, in seven lines, appears "International Philatelic Exhibition, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, May 29-June 6, USA 13¢."

To the left is a stylized red, white and blue "76" which has the appearance of a coil of stamps. Collectors should address requests for first day cancellations to Interphil '76 stamps, Postmaster, Philadelphia, PA 19104.

The cost is 13 cents per stamp to be affixed to the self-addressed envelopes which must accompany orders, and remittance should be by check or money order instead of cash. Orders must be postmarked no later than Jan. 30.

Australia nationhood honored

An 18 cent stamp commemorating Australia's 75 years of nationhood will be issued on Jan. 5, 1976. The stamp shows the Australian Coat of Arms on a dark blue background.

A Christmas gift pack of Australian stamps for collectors is also being offered. The gift pack contains a selection of Australian stamps featuring animals, marine life and gemstones, mounted in a colorful and informative folder; a first day cover; a booklet on how to begin collecting stamps and information on Australia Post services to stamp collectors.

An important part of Australia Post's philatelic service is the free distribution of two publications, the PHILATELIC BULLETIN and STAMP PREVIEW, to anyone who requests that their name be added to the Philatelic Mailing List, P. O. Box 259, South Melbourne, Vic. 3205, Australia.

Museum offers Spirit of 76 FDC

The "Spirit of 76" Museum at Wellington, Ohio, home of the artist, Archibald M. Willard, is sponsoring a first day cover for the strip of three 13-cent commemorative stamps with the theme "Spirit of 76" to be placed on sale Jan. 1 in Pasadena during the Tournament of Roses Parade. The cover features a distinctive photo of a charcoal sketch of the artist.

The price of the cover franked with the horizontal strip of three stamps is $1 each. Orders should be sent ot the "Spirit of 76" Museum, P. O. Box 76, Wellington, Ohio 44090, with check or money order made out to the Southern Lorain County Historical Society, Inc. A self-addressed stamped No. 10 envelope is also requested.

MUSIC... the voice of Christmas

> "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness; come before His presence with thanksgiving."
>
> — Psalm 100, 1-2.

Story by Joseph H. Firman
PB staff writer

Since the herald angels sang Alleluia in the skies above Bethlemen nearly 20 centuries ago, Christmas time has been music time, as millions of people raised their voices in hymns and anthems, chorales and carols, in celebration of the birth of Jesus. All the great composers, conductors, musicians and singers of the world have contributed to the musical heritage of Christianity since the first Noel.

Like other regions of the United States and the world, Southern California for the past few weeks has been ringing with yuletide music, from toddlers chanting "Jingle Bells" to cathedral choirs intoning Handel's majestic oratorio, "Messiah." One hears carols on every radio and television station, in restaurants, theaters, malls, department stores and shopping centers. The rich pageantry of religious music is interrupted sporadically by such sticky confections as "Frosty the Snowman," "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" and "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus."

What would Christmas be without music?" "Joy to the World," "Silent Night," "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," "It Came upon a Midnight Clear" — the torrent of beautiful, nostalgic, religious and sentimental songs floods the world at Christmas time, enriching and uplifting the listeners.

As Christmas approaches, every school stages a Christmas pageant, every college presents a Christmas concert, every church choir offers Christmas anthems and oratorios. In Southern California yuletide music is heard at Disneyland and Knott's Berry Farm, on the Queen Mary and Olivera Street.

In recent years, the most popular musical Christmas presentations have been "Messiah" (1742), Tchaikovsky's suite and ballet, "The Nutcracker" (1892) and Menotti's short opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors" (1951). It is a rare holiday season that passes without several presentations of these works. To the trio might be added Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," which, though largely spoken drama, features groups of carolers; and Victor Herbert's operetta, "Babes in Toyland," a fantasy that well expresses for youngsters the excitement and enchantment of Christmas.

The Christmas portion of the "Messiah" has been or will be presented this season by dozens of churches throughout the Southland and at such colleges as Pomona, Los Angeles Trade-Technical, Chapman, Cal State Fullerton and Los Angeles Valley. The full oratorio will be sung in the Pavilion of the Los Angeles Music Center at 8:30 tonight by the Southern California Mormon Choir, conducted by Frederick Davis.

Among the companies doing "The Nutcracker" are Ballet Pacifica of Laguna Beach, the Golden State Ballet Theater of Covina, the Theater Ballet of San Francisco, the Southern California Ballet Society, the Pacific Ballet Theater and the Cultural Arts Center Ballet. The San Diego Ballet will perform it in Shrine Auditorium, Los Angeles, next Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Chaffey College staged "Amahl" last weekend. Other groups who presented it this season are the Whittier Light Opera Association, Pacific West Coast Opera Company, the Five Penny Opera Company, the Los Angeles Solo Repertory Orchestra and Ballet, and the International Opera Ensemble.

Pierce College and Glendale Community College produced "Babes in Toyland," and the Diamond Bar Children's Theater will do it at Walnut High School at 3 p.m. today and Sunday. Gallery Theater in Ontario is offering "A Christmas Carol" at 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays, and the Glendale Center Theater is putting it on daily through Tuesday. Circle Productions of Claremont does "Scrooge," an adaptation of "A Christmas Carol," at Webb School at 2:30 and 8 p.m. today and next weekend.

Christmas is music. Throughout the season, in homes and halls, in cathedrals and college chapels, in schools, stores, hospitals and rest homes, the voice of Christmas is music, good, bad and indifferent, richly religious or whimsical, for oldsters redolent with memories, for moppets charged with magic, for everyone warm and enduring.

"Come all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant . . ."

William Youngblood played the crippled boy; Jackie Harper his mother, and from left, Jack Davis, Michael Leonard and Frederick Hamilton the Three Magi in the Chaffey College production of "Amahl and the Night Visitors."

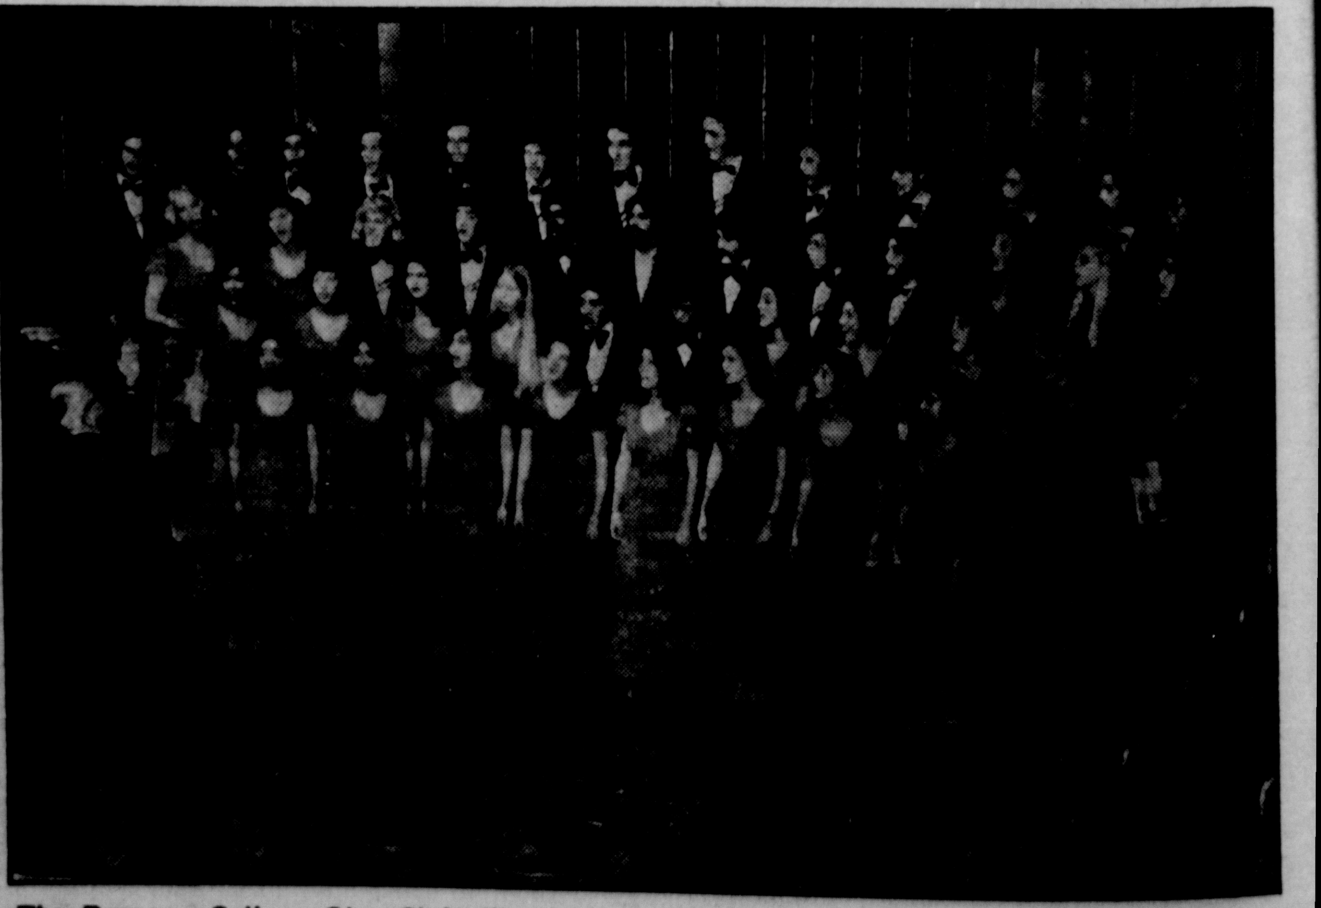
ON THE COVER

Carolers in Ontario's Gallery Theater production of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," symbolize thousands of groups who are singing Christmas carols throughout the Southland this season. Churches, schools, colleges and other organizations are presenting concerts, pageants and yule programs in testimony to the fact that music is the voice of Christmas.



The Pomona College Glee Club, directed by William Russell, was one of dozens of groups which sang Handel's "Messiah" this year.

Do-it-yourself

Recreational space saver

By STEVE ELLINGSON

Here's a way to steal a little space along one side of a room and hide a whole railroad line in it . . . or a slot car race track. The fold-down table (in photo) is eight feet long and four feet wide. Of course, it may be made longer in the event you have more wall space available. The handy part is — once you're through playing — the shelf may be folded up against the wall where it's out of the way. It protrudes only a few inches when folded and the ⅛'' pegboard face may be decorated so that it adds to the appearance of your room.

Many folks place these tables in their garage or basement. It makes a complete family entertainment center. For example, it's also handy for mother when she lays out her sewing. Then too, there are many hobbies that call for a large work table. And — daughter will like it for her doll house and furniture. It's still another project that any amateur can undertake with success when using the easy-to-follow pattern. Complete directions, illustrations and a list of needed materials are always included. The cost is slight.

To obtain the easy-to-follow Train-Slot Table Pattern No. 362, send $1.50 (includes first class postage & handling). Send check, cash or money order to: Steve Ellingson, Pomona Progress-Bulletin Pattern Dept., P.O. Box 2382, Van Nuys, California 91409.

Request for Cella probe funds denied

SANTA ANA (AP) — Orange County supervisors have rejected a request from Dist. Atty. Cecil Hicks that they kick in $15,000 to partially pay for an investigation into the activities of Dr. Louis J. Cella.

Hicks had asked for the money to hire "auditors with extensive criminal investigative experience" but the supervisors said they felt he had enough funds in a "consultant services" account. They said if he ran short of funds he could request more money.

The Orange County Grand Jury and a federal grand jury in Los Angeles reportedly are probing allegations of embezzlement, tax evasion, grand theft and Medi-Cal fraud against Cella, who once controlled two hospitals in Orange County.

Cella has been an active supporter of political candidates and all five Orange County supervisors have reported receiving donations from him in the past two years.

United States Savings Bonds vs. the Piggy Bank.
1. If the Piggy Bank is stolen, you lose what's in it. That's the way it is with cash. If a Bond is stolen, you get a new one.
2. A Piggy Bank is easy for even its owner to rob. But Bonds can be bought through your Payroll Savings Plan at work, and a little is taken out of each check before you can get your hands on it.
3. The Piggy Bank may look kind and generous, but it won't give you any interest. A U.S. Savings Bond yields 6% when held to a 5-year maturity.
4. The Piggy Bank money just sits there. A Bond helps your country.

In summary, you might wonder why grown folks would even use Piggy Banks. It's so much smarter to buy Bonds.

Avoid that empty feeling. Buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Series E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4½% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

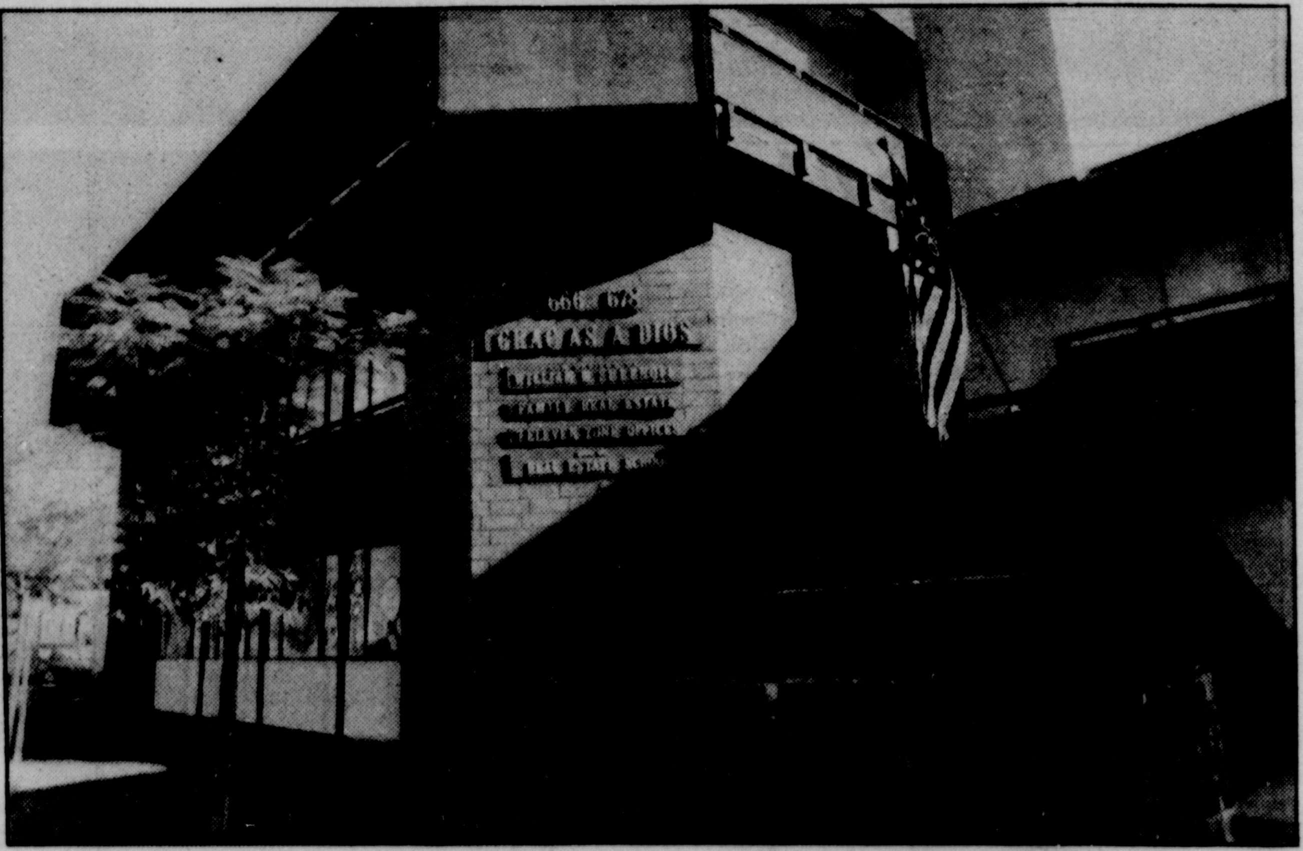
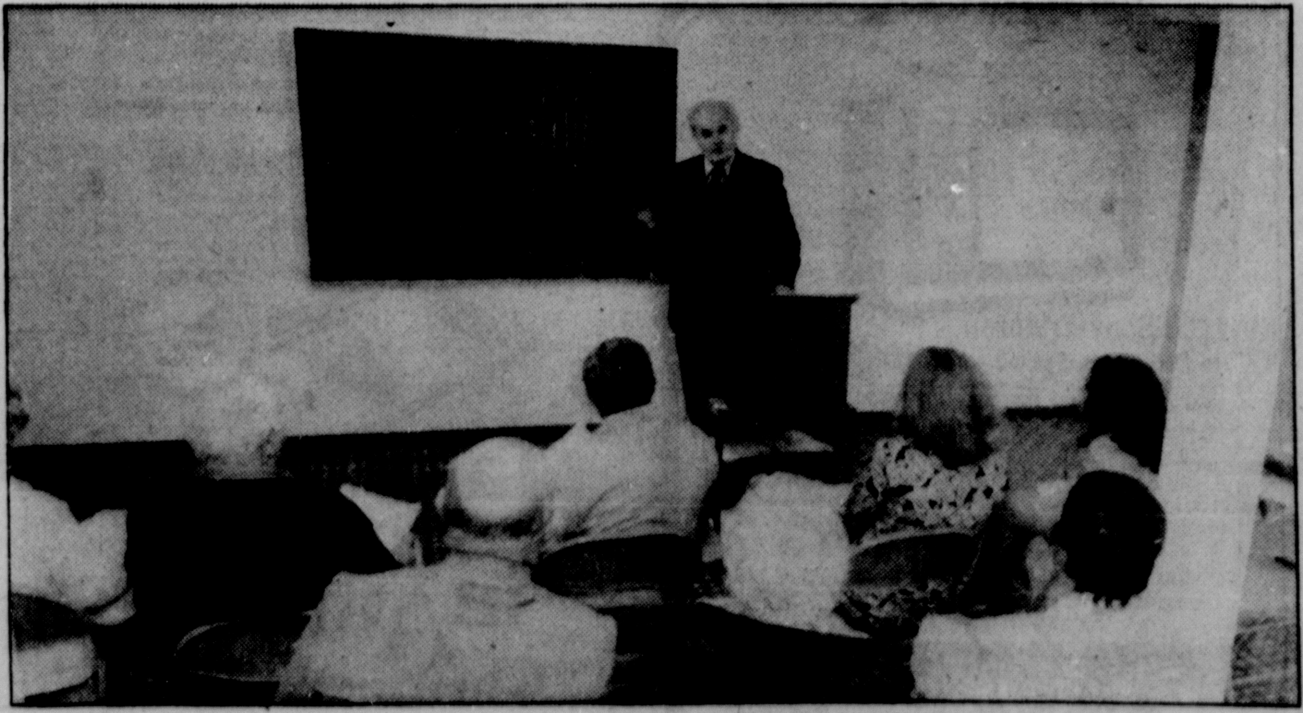
Busy Florence Cohn checks out an address at her center of operations at Family Real Estate.



Gracias a Dios is the name given to the attractive building housing Family Real Estate and the Indian Hill Real Estate School.



Real estate manager Bob Woolsey stresses some fundamentals of real estate to students at the Indian Hill School of Real Estate.

When light went on, a firm was born...

A striking three-story office structure at the northeast corner of San Jose Avenue and Indian Hill Boulevard at Claremont is the home of Family Real Estate.

"Gracias a Dioas" (Thanks to God) is the name given the building by Mrs. Florence Cohn, the owner.

"Someone up there watched over me while I struggled to get the proposed building approved by the city, then finance, and finally constructed,' Mrs. Cohn said.

Mrs. Cohn recalls that she moved her office into the new building the same day that former President Nixon-moved out of his — Aug. 9, 1974.

Mrs. Cohn's real estate operation is an outgrowth of an income tax preparation service, which she began in 1954.

The income tax service has grown in clientele to about 400 customers, but Mrs. Cohn said she still has room for more customers.

A friend asked Mrs. Cohn what he should do with money he inherited. "A light went on up here," Mrs. Cohn said, pointing to her head, "and Family Real Estate was born."

Mrs. Cohn worked as a saleswoman for four years for Booth Bros., received her broker license, and opened an office at 3288 N. Garey Ave. in the Garey Center at Pomona in January, 1968.

Since moving to Claremont, Mrs. Cohn still retains the Garey Avenue office as a branch.

Mrs. Cohn happened to wear a Navy blue dress with orange trim one day, and those became the colors for her business cards.

"Income tax and real estate are so closely intertwined," she said.

Mrs. Cohn recently attended a three-day tax conference, where she learned that it is better to take title in community property than the age-old joint tenancy.

Now she's started the Indian Hill School of Real Estate, with Eunice Hutchins, tax consultant, and Robert Woolsey as partners.

Woolsey, sales manager for Family Real Estate, is also instructor of the classes which will meet in January on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Woolsey said that the classes prepare students for a state real estate license exam, which he called "the ticket into the ballgame, and the greatest franchise investment in the world."

The building at San Jose and Indian Hill is also home for CUNA Mutual Insurance Co., attorney William Shernoff, and 7-Eleven Zone offices.

Mrs. Cohn said there is still some office space available.

"Real estate is for helping people, not just for making money," she said. "I'm interested in helping people, and that's the name of the game."

Mrs. Cohn has been busy in volunteer organizations and this year she has volunteered to head the Claremont YMCA drive in 1976.

Indian Hill Office 624-4505

Dear Molly,

We're always looking for listings. Let's just say you were a house. You've been all dolled up with new paint on your face and fluttering shutters on your eyes. You're out to charm your way into the hearts of a new family. Your driveway has been resurfaced and your lawn manicured. You're wearing brand new carpets and draperies fit for a queen. You feel well, you look well and you should sell well.

Now you're ready for one of Family's professionals. Call 624-4500 and guess what??? You've got the wrong number. It's really 624-4505.

When we take you on we first study the house sales on your area, call comparables. We have records back to almost 1776. The right price you will sell for is determined by the neighborhood sale as well as your own condition.

Once you are on the market we put you on a hot sheet, broadcasting you to all the local brokers even before you appear in the multiple listing book. In about a week or so the photographer will come take your personal portrait, so it's important that you look your bestest. Every Friday morning we make it a point to caravan our listings just to show you off to our Family, and how proud we are of you. Our publicity agent gets you into all the columns (classified that is). And on Sunday, if you're not too busy we sit with you to present you to our qualified potential buyers, at your special open house party.

Once you sell we see you through the trying days of escrow until we turn you over to your loving new folks.

Hardworkingly yours,
Your Family

P.S. Come list with us & have a Merry Christmas and the Happiest of New Years.

TEEN SCOPE

Seniors slate rally

The first major senior activity at Alta Loma High School will be a car rally to be held today. Open to all students in the area, participants will meet in the east parking lot at the school at 7 p.m. on that night.

Cost will be $2.50 per car. First prize of $10 and second prize of $5 will be awarded to the top two participants.

Proceeds will go toward senior class expenses prior to next June's graduation.

SELL TREES

Every day from now until Christmas, the MGM students from Alta Loma High School will be selling Christmas trees in the lot near the corner of Foothill and Archibald in Cucamonga.

The owner of the tree concession read about the efforts of the MGM students to earn enough money to finance their bicentennial trip next spring and offered the students 50 per cent of the profits if they would assist in the selling.

MGM students are on the lot every day during out-of-school hours. They assist in the selling of not only the trees but also of stocking stuffers, wreaths, pine cones and other such items that are for sale.

Any businessman who would like to assist the students in a similar money making event may contact one of the parent committee members, Mrs. Sue Welch, at 987-1358.

FIELD TRIP

Art Castro's California History class and Gary Cronan's Mexican American Culture class from Alta Loma High School toured Olivera Street Tuesday and also "La Plaza de la Raza" in Lincoln Park, both in Los Angeles.

They visited the surrounding of historical buildings and historical sites in the area to obtain cultural awareness experiences. The students had the opportunity to see first hand the early heritage left by California settlers.

UNIQUE CARD

A unique and interesting bulletin board display prevailed in the Spanish class of Miss Maria Rodriquez. Interested in multinational holiday celebrations, Miss Rodriquez brought to school a Christmas card featuring the word "peace" and the pictures of a lion and a lamb.

With the card being too small, Beau Henderson, art student at Alta Loma High School, was able to draw the same picture and word on a large paper which was placed on the bulletin board.

The students in Miss Rodriquez's Spanish 3-4 class finished the drawing by coloring it in and adding the word "peace" in as many languages as fit. The finished product was displayed in room 52.

PEAK CLIMB

A heavy snowfall in the San Jacinto mountains caused the Alta Loma High School Hiking Club to take an alternate hike for their December trip. After a week of overcast, the day dawned clear and bright for the hikers' trip to Arrowhead Peak above San Bernardino.

The climb was up steep chaparral covered slopes. An excellent view of San Bernardino and the surrounding mountains awaited the hikers. Numerous signs of wildlife were seen, including deer and bear.

Arrowhead peak gained its name after a prominent landmark. The shape of an arrowhead, point down, is on the side of the mountain facing the valley. This large, distinct, natural phenomenon is the subject of several Indian legends. Adding to the uniqueness is a boiling hot springs located at the arrowhead's point. This is where Arrowhead Hotel is located.

Participating in the December hike were Jeff Moore, Ty Weeks, Shari De Joseph, Corrine Fultz, Tami Dahl, Bill Tallent, Rob Skinner, David Allen, Steve Marsee, David Clark, Mary Conger, Guests Wayne Harpel and Bud Parpel, and adviser Martin Balding.

19 at CHS apply for student exchange

Nineteen junior and sophomore students at Claremont High School have applied for the local coveted spot in the Claremont-Princeton, N. J. Rotary Club student exchange program scheduled for January 1976.

The exchange program is part of the Bicentennial Sister City program between the two cities.

The local students will be reduced in number to five finalists by the local Rotarian committee which will interview each applicant.

Round-trip air transportation for the Claremont student will be provided by the Rotary Club. The students will live with Rotary families during their exchange semester.

Both cities have bicentennial programs in which the two young persons will participate as representatives of their respective communities.

Students will be selected on the basis of academic, extracurricular, and community accomplishments, and their demonstrated potential as representatives of their communities.

AL gals excel at wheel

Five girls at Alta Loma High School scored 100 per cent on the driving portion of their tests taken at the Department of Motor Vehicles.

They are Susan Achuff, Betsey Brewer, Tammi Slocum, Jill Taylor and Toni Warren.

As a result, each girl was presented a plaque by the Automobile Club of Southern California, a "100 per cent driving award."

Students take part in varied activity

SCHOLARSHIP

A lucky La Puente High School student will win a $500 scholarship to La Verne College.

Stephen Hernandez, La Puente High School counselor, represented the high school at the career conference. A selection of several names was made from all the school representatives in attendance. The selection of Hernandez' name guarantees a $500 scholarship to a student interested in enrolling at La Verne College. Robert Sanchez, La Puente High School college counselor will solicit students interested in attending La Verne College, and a panel will determine the scholarship winner.

VOLUNTEERS

Twenty-five students at Serrano Junior High School in Montclair received community recognition and certificates recently at a volunteers awards ceremony at the school. The youths were honored for volunteering over 50 hours each during 1975 to community services such as assisting in convalescence homes, homes for retarded children, preschool settings and in the school.

The Red Cross Youth Services Program sponsored the event, which also featured the crowning of the 1975 king and queen. Serrano youth leader Carol Bremer, and Youth Services chairman Carol Gardiner coordinated the activity.

GIVE BLOOD

Members of the MECHA Club at Ganesha High School in Pomona recently donated blood to City of Hope.

This was a special drive designed to replace blood used by City of Hope patients afflicted with cancer and leukemia, heart, blood and respiratory maladies, diabetes and other disorders of metabolism and heredity.

A Red Cross mobile collected the blood at the medical center. Members of the drill team at Northview High School in Covina served refreshments.

Chaffey 'gathering' focuses on college

The third annual "Gathering," sponsored by the Chaffey High School Mentally Gifted Minors committee, was held Thursday at Ontario National Golf Course.

The three-hour event, between 7 and 10 p.m., allowed Chaffey High students to meet Chaffey High graduates now attending college in order to gain first-hand ideas and impressions of college life.

Mrs. Shirley Kimmich, Chaffey faculty coordinator for the event, said invitations were sent out to 300 former students now in college to attend. All Chaffey students classified as "MGM" (close to 200) and California Scholarship Federation members were invited.

SHOW

More than 300 performers were featured in Chaffey High School's Performing Arts production, "Holiday Fling." The show was presented at 2:30 and 8:00 p.m. in Gardiner W. Spring Auditorium on Wednesday.

The holiday variety show was opened by the Chaffey High Band under the direction of Jack Mercer. "White Christmas", "Winter Wonderland", and selections from "The Nutcracker" were among the band's numbers.

Drama students from Nelson Palmer's Play Production class appeared in three holiday skits: "Department Store Santa," "The Toy Shop," and "The Twelve Days After Christmas."

The A Cappella Choir, directed by Jeanette V. Harris and Dana Felts, performed two sets of songs which included "O Holy Night" and "Christmas Sleigh."

Marian Miller's modern dance students performed in five dances from "The Nutcracker" which included "March of the Toys" and "Waltz of the Flowers." Members of Chaffey's Speech Team, under the direction of Judy Pett, Narrated the story of "The Nutcracker."

"Tomorrow Will Be my Dancing Day", "So Blest A Sight", and "Carol of The Bills" were among the songs to be sung by Mat Scully's Chamber Singers.

The Chaffey District Orchestra, under the direction of Clyde Owens, performed "The Trees of Christmas", "Hanukkah Holiday", and "Christmas Fugue".

VISITOR — Aster Mulugeta of Ethiopia attends Ganesha High

Ganesha hosts coed

By JANENE WHITNEY
Ganesha Correspondent

For the past month, Ganesha High School has hosted Aster Mulugeta, a foreign exchange student from Ethiopia. Aster is a senior at Ganesha. She began school there on Nov. 14.

"I traveled here from Ethiopia all by myself," said Aster, "there was no one there to help me when I had to switch planes."

From a family of two boys and six girls, Aster's life in Ethiopia was very different from her life in the United States. Her father is a movie director in her homeland, and she attended an all-girls school.

"It is very different in Ethiopia," she explained, "the boys go to one school and the girls go to another. They are not so much friends as they are here in America."

Aster plans to graduate from Ganesha and attend Mt. San Antonio College in the fall. She plans to study nursing. She said she likes America very much.

Debators win big

Chaffey High School speech students won honors in Citrus Belt Speech Region tournament on the Chaffey campus.

First place winners were Traci Hickman with his expository on "How to be a High School Soche" and Michelle Darling with her oratory on the "Power of the Press."

Second place with an oratory on "Diet Gadgets" was Sue Johnson with Gloria Binney placing third with a programmed reading on "Friends."

Finalists were Jim Watson with an impromptu presentation and Becky Garrison with a "One-Eyed Monster — TV" oratory. Other speech students who received scores of first or second in individual rounds of competition were Paul Beardwood and Joy Neely.

Speech team sponsor Judith Pett said the next tournament would be the upcoming Loyola University event. Students also participated in the Bicentennial Youth Debates on the Chaffey campus Dec.11.

Girls of month picked at CHS

By DEBBIE ANSELL
Claremont Correspondent

Liz Parrott and Kathy Storrer were honored recently by the Claremont High School Girl's League as Girls of the Month.

The girls, both seniors, were honored at league meetings, at which time they received certificates and pins. They were chosen by a committee of administrators, faculty and a male student, for achievement in a specific academic field or area of interest.

All girls at CHS are eligible for the honor. "We try to recognize the girls who do something special," explained Victoria Sartwell, Girl's League adviser.

At the conclusion of the school year, the league will honor one of the Girl's of the Month as the 1975-76 Girl of the Year.

Miss Parrott was chosen as the Girl of the Month for September for her achievements in English. She serves as chairman of the Teacher Evaluation Committee at CHS. She hopes to attend Oberlin College next year and plans a career in law.

Miss Storrer, November Girl of the Month, was honored for her achievements in the field of home economics. A member of CSF, Miss Storrer has been a participant in the Girl's Athletic Association. She plans a career as a cancer research doctor.

Ontario's Christmas

On Thursday the performing arts students at Ontario High School presented the annual "Christmas Hour." The choir, which recently presented a mini concert at the Montclair Plaza, sang and the drama department performed a Christmas skit.

The symphonic band closed the program with a presentation of Christmas songs old and new.

Pioneer lauded

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ward Walker, president of Walt Disney Productions, was honored as Pioneer of the Year at the recent 37th annual award dinner of the Motion Picture Pioneers.

The event raised $200,000 for the organization's fund to aid film industry veterans down on their luck.

Walker, a 38-year veteran of the Disney organization, accepted the honor on the condition that there would be no speeches and no dais.
